CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

LAMAR HUNT

Following the contract settlement between the owners and NFL players and the revolutionary owners meeting that produced competitive scheduling and a longer regular season schedule, Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt sat down and talked with newsmen about the status of the sport. Always candid and to the point, Hunt wasted little time in summarizing his feelings.

"There has never been a more positive general additude about pro football than at present. I came away very optimistic about the game in general and the Chiefs in particular. I think the events of the last few years inflicted things on the general public that they were not interested in . . . things like strikes, labor disputes, etc. . . . Sports fans want to hear about who we are going to play and what kind of team we are going to have. They want to hear about football and we are going back to that in 1977."

Thus, a new era begins to dawn for the NFL, with all its changes of late, and for the Kansas City Chiefs, who begin their third year of re-organization behind the team's personable head coach Paul Wiggin. Hunt is excited about the Chiefs future under Wiggin and provided the head coach with a brand new three-year contract following the 1976 season.

Hunt begins his 18th season as the head man of the Chiefs. He also continues as president of the American Football Conference of the NFL and continues to be a leader and innovator among the 28 clubs of the league.

At the age of 26 in 1959, this quiet Texan formed the American Football League and served as its first president. His franchise, the Dallas Texans, moved to Kansas City prior to the 1963 season.

Hunt's ventures into sports probably got their start when he played as a reserve end at Southern Methodist University. Since his entrance into professional football Hunt has also organized and coordinated the formation and development of World Championship Tennis and, through WCT, helped bring this sport into the national and international prominence it now enjoys. He formed the Dallas Tornado soccer team and in addition, is one of the founding owners and has a small financial interest in the Chicago Bulls of the NBA.

In 1972 Hunt became the first AFL figure to be enshrined in pro football's Hall of Fame. Long active in community and civic affairs both in Dallas and Kansas City, Hunt continues his involvement outside of his business activities. In 1974 he was national chairman of the Victor Awards, a special benefit of the City of Hope. Hunt serves on the board of trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and serves on the board of directors of National Football League Charities. He is on the National board of trustees of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is a member of the board of directors of the Great Midwest Corporation.

Hunt, born in 1932, and his wife Norma have four children. Their newest arrival is Daniel, who will be one year old this fall. The three other children are Lamar Jr., 21; Sharron, 19; and Clark, 12.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS PRESIDENT

JACK STEADMAN

Last August, when the Chiefs began the second season of their new approach and reorganization, owner Lamar Hunt promoted Jack Steadman to president of the Kansas City Chiefs Football Club. In making the announcement, Hunt said Steadman would continue to be in charge of all operations for the Chiefs and Worlds of Fun and would now concentrate his efforts on the future growth and expansion plans of both Kansas City-based organizations.

"During the past 18 months Jack Steadman has been instrumental in the reorganization and rebuilding of the Chiefs," noted Hunt about the man who has been a part of the pro football franchise since its inception in 1960. "I have long had great confidence in Jack's ability to recruit, direct and coordinate a positive productive staff and this promotion is being taken to assure the best possible circumstances under which the Chiefs will again become a contender. We have made great strides in these directions recently and I believe we are well on our way."

Considered one of the top administrators in professional athletics, Steadman has acquired a long list of illustrious credentials and achievements in his 17-year association with the Chiefs and pro football. The Chiefs, over the past 17 seasons, have been among pro football's most successful franchises and much of that success is attributable to Steadman.

"In my opinion," contends Steadman, "the success of any business is directly related to the quality and dedication of the people who make up the organization. I am proud of the fact that Lamar has provided us with everything necessary to build the finest organization in all of pro sports. With Jim Schaaf as our general manager, Paul Wiggin as our head coach and the support and dedication of all of our staff and player personnel, we, in my opinion, have the people to get the job done."

Steadman has been the head of the Chiefs administrative staff since November of 1960 when Hunt named him general manager of the Dallas Texans of the American Football League. He was promoted to executive vice president and general manager of the Chiefs in 1966 and to president last August.

As the Chiefs head into their sixth season in Arrowhead, much of the stadium, acclaimed nationally as one of the finest sports facilities in the world, reflects the personality of Jack Steadman. It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building a two-stadium complex that resulted in a 78,000-seat football facility (Arrowhead) and a 42,000 seat baseball stadium (Royals Stadium).

Despite a demanding work schedule, Steadman remains active in numerous civic affairs. He just completed two special assignments for the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, heading up the Worlds Fair committee and the task force committee on tourism. Steadman is a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City in addition to being a member of the civic council for Greater Kansas City. His other civic assignments include executive committee and board of directors with United Way, executive committee and board of directors of Starlight Theatre Association, board of directors of Kansas City sponsor chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, director of Jackson County Unit of the American Cancer Society, advisory board member of the Salvation Army, the board of directors of the Greater Kansas City YMCA and the American Royal Association and an advisory trustee for Research Medical Center.

In addition to his Chiefs and Worlds of Fun association, Steadman serves as vice president for First Fidelity Investment Trust and is a member of the board of directors of the Great Midwest Corporation and Commerce Bank of Kansas City.

Jack and his wife, Martha, have three children, two sons, Tom, 26 and Don, 21, and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Selders, 25.

CHIEFS HEAD COACH

PAUL WIGGIN

Year III of the Paul Wiggin era commences with his belief that the Chiefs at last have the quality personnel it takes to begin returning Kansas City to prominence in the National Football League.

With the fruits of two good drafts upon which to continue the rebuilding effort, Wiggin approaches 1977 with an unbounded enthusiasm that is, even for him, remarkable.

"To be honest, I wasn't as excited a year ago as I am right now heading into this season," said Wiggin. "You know, going into last year, I wasn't scared but there were a lot of question marks with nearly every aspect of the team. We answered some of the questions—positively—in 1976. I am equally hopeful we can answer the rest this time around.

"To be a consistent winner in the NFL it takes talent and personnel, first and foremost, and everybody will agree on that. But we have many of the key ingredients already on hand. We have the attitude that it takes from the players, coaching staff and the organization. It still stands we are basically an attitude football team and we'll have to lean on that some more in the future."

Wiggin's first two Chiefs squads compiled identical 5-9 records. Other than the similarity of records, however, the head coach was far more pleased overall with his second squad compared to his first. "We learned a lot last year. We made progress in a number of key areas. We learned we had an offense that could move the football. We also learned we need to improve drastically on defense."

Such candor is not surprising from the 42-year-old Wiggin, who inherited a club in great need of repair when he was named head coach of the Chiefs on January 23, 1975. It is a trait Kansas Citians have come to expect from him ever since he became only the second head coach in the 17-year history of the franchise. The honesty of feeling, as players and fans alike have discovered over the past two years, manifests itself in good times and bad. "I have a strong belief the main thing you derive from this game is the respect of the people around you," Wiggin has said on many occasions.

He and his team earned the respect of the National Football League a year ago when the Chiefs offense finished third in the AFC behind a pair of playoff teams, Baltimore and Oakland. Kansas City's passing game, with Mike Livingston at the throttle, ranked second, a mere four yards off the top rung in all of the NFL.

"The whole offensive package looks very good going into 1977," Wiggin says. "It's a sound structure to build on. When you have people like Livingston and MacArthur Lane, a sound offensive line and young players like Walter White and Henry Marshall, it gives you a good feeling. I'm also impressed with the offensive players we obtained in the draft."

As a former defensive end, Kansas City's defensive collapse in 1976 was especially galling to its head coach. "It's no secret, we've got to do a better job on defense. The only way to go is up (Kansas City was last in the AFC and next-to-last in the NFL) but I just have to think the defense is going to be better this season. We certainly see ourselves on the rise. Maybe we aren't going to be among the top ten defenses next year, but we are going to be better. I know that."

Wiggin graduated to the Chiefs from the staff of the San Francisco 49ers. After Dick Nolan was named 49ers coach in 1968, he added Wiggin to his staff as defensive line coach, then in 1974 increased his responsibilities to those of defensive coordinator.

Wiggin played 11 seasons as a defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, retiring after the 1967 season. During that time, he achieved

Pro Bowl recognition twice (1966 and 1968) and played in three NFL title games with the Browns, including Cleveland's 1964 world championship. Drafted as a future by the Browns in 1956, he began his playing career the following season. He entered coaching with the 49ers immediately upon his retirement as a player.

Wiggin was a three-year starter under coach Chuck Taylor at Stanford University from 1954-56. "Chuck made a profound impression on me. I don't think I ever made a major decision in my life without talking to him first. The biggest thing I learned in life is believing in people, and I learned that from Chuck." Wiggin earned a master's degree in education and as a senior, co-captained the 1956 Stanford squad along with former San Francisco 49ers quarterback John Brodie.

Wiggin's first two years in Kansas City have produced several of the high points in the franchise's history. His first regular season victory as a head coach came in a 42-10 rout of the Oakland Raiders. There was the Monday night upset in Dallas, when the Chiefs rallied for a three-point win over the eventual NFC champions. Then last year, after four losses in succession, came the miracle "flea-flicker" comeback in Washington that produced a victory over the Redskins. A week later, Kansas City battled Miami even-up in the Orange Bowl—and was rewarded with an overtime triumph.

But most all of Wiggin's 28 games as a head coach have been marked by one distinguishing characteristic: excitement. The 1975-76 Chiefs turned corners of sorts. Football at Arrowhead was fun again, a quality missing the previous few seasons prior to Wiggin's arrival. A feeling of optimism, generated largely by Wiggin and his staff, returned to and within the squad.

"We'll be worth watching in 1977," Wiggin says simply of his club, one that has received a badly-needed transfusion from the last two drafts. In the two years he has directed the Chiefs fortunes, Wiggin (and the Chiefs organization) has become a firm believer in building a squad through the draft. "You start off believing that because it makes sense," he says. "Then you look at the teams that have a lot of draft choices and you discover they're the ones who are the best in football. We want to be one of those teams. I believe in our philosophy of building through the draft. I think it's working for us and will work in the future."

Together with Chuck Taylor, Wiggin's Cleveland coach, Paul Brown, also greatly influenced Wiggin's playing and coaching careers. A conversation with Brown in 1974 opened Wiggin's eyes to the fact he had head coaching capabilities.

"Paul of course was the coach of the Cincinnati Bengals then. All I was interested in doing at the time was making the 49ers defense the best in the league. We played Cincinnati, and the Bengals beat us that day. As I was crossing the field, I shook hands with Paul. He looked me square in the eye and his eyes narrowed with the intensity I had seen when I played for him. He said, 'Paul Wiggin, when the opportunity comes, don't hesitate.'

"I knew what he was talking about. I just didn't think my opportunity would come as soon as it did."

The opportunity brought with it a responsibility. The responsibility of relating, motivating and winning. "I guarantee we will do a better job in each of these areas than ever before," says the Chiefs head coach. Upon the foundations already established, and those still to be attained, the Kansas City Chiefs, whose excitement indeed is growing, will advance to the NFL's upper echelons.

Wiggin was born November 18, 1934, at Modesto, California. He attended nearby Manteca High School in Manteca, where he earned letters in four sports. He is married to the former Carolynn Clark, and they are the parents of three daughters, Kymberly, 16; Kristyn, 14; and Kellie, 10. The Wiggins live in suburban Johnson County.

CHIEFS COACHING STAFF

CHET FRANKLIN, Linebacker Coach

After two seasons as an offensive coach, Chet Franklin finds himself on the opposite side of the football for 1977. As part of Paul Wiggin's realignment of his coaching staff, Franklin will now coach the linebackers after having been in charge of running backs the past two years.

The 42-year-old Franklin came with Wiggin to Kansas City from the staff of the San Francisco 49ers. Franklin spent four seasons, 1971-74, with the 49ers, the first three as special teams coach and 1974 in charge of the defensive secondary. Prior to joining San Francisco, Franklin served 12 years in the college ranks, one at Stanford, three at Oklahoma and eight at Colorado, four as the Buffaloes offensive coordinator under Eddie Crowder.

When Franklin went to the 49ers, he took control of a kicking game that ranked 17th in the NFL. Under his direction, that phase successively ranked 12th, sixth and ninth. In 1974, he transformed the secondary from a No. 22 ranking to No. 6.

"Every time you see Chet in a particular situation, that situation seems to get better," says Wiggin, "and from that standpoint he'll be a welcome addition to our defensive staff. Chet has a defensive background from his days with the 49ers."

Born in Ontario, Oregon, Franklin attended high school in Elko, Nevada, prior to entering the University of Utah. He played guard three seasons, and after a two-year Marine Corps hitch, joined the Stanford staff while completing work on a master's degree in secondary education.

Franklin and his wife, Ann, are the parents of a daughter, Shana Caryn, 9. They live in Overland Park, Kansas

JACK CHRISTIANSEN, Offensive Assistant

Jack Christiansen, a distinguished NFL name as both a player and coach, is a new addition to Paul Wiggin's coaching staff. He'll work with the offensive backs and will have input into all areas of offensive planning.

An assistant or head coach in both the NFL and college ranks over the past 18 years, Christiansen came to Kansas City from Stanford University, where he'd coached the past nine seasons.

Christiansen first achieved NFL prominence as a standout safety with the Detroit Lions from 1951-58. Six times an all-pro on the left side, Christiansen and his prime secondary mates Yale Lary and Jim David came to be known as "Chris's Crew." Christiansen played on four conference champions, three NFL title winners and played in the Pro Bowl five times.

He joined the San Francisco 49ers coaching staff in 1959 as an assistant under Red Hickey and then became head coach of the 49ers when Hickey resigned three games into the 1963 season. Christiansen served as head coach through the 1967 campaign. His record was 26-38-3.

Following nine years in San Francisco, Christiansen moved down the Peninsula to Palo Alto as an offensive assistant coach under John Ralston at Stanford. When Ralston left to coach the Denver Broncos in 1972, Christiansen was appointed his successor. As an assistant, Christiansen tutored quarterbacks Jim Plunkett and Don Bunce. One of his quarterbacks after he became head coach was Mike Boryla, now at Philadelphia.

Christiansen served five years (1972-76) as Stanford head coach. His Pacific 8 Conference head coaching record was an impressive 22-12-1 to go along with an overall log of 30-22-3.

"I'd known Jack to be an enthusiastic worker," said Wiggin. "His rapport with our players thus far has been what we'd expected."

The 48-year-old Christiansen, a native of Sublett, Kansas, and his wife Doris have four daughters, Terri, 24; Jackie, 22; and 20-year-old twins, Jani and Joni.

TOM BETTIS, Defensive Backfield Coach

One of Paul Wiggin's most popular initial decisions as Chiefs head coach was his intention to retain Tom Bettis as defensive backfield coach. Bettis in 1977 will have increased defensive responsibilities in tandem with Tom Pratt and Chet Franklin and is still, in Wiggin's eyes, destined for bigger and better things.

"Tom's status is unchanged as far as I'm concerned. I still consider him an excellent candidate for a head coaching position in the NFL," says Wiggin. "I think he's the best secondary coach in football."

Bettis, 43, has been a member of the Chiefs coaching staff since March of 1966. A native of Chicago, he was the number one draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1955 and was a starter at linebacker through 1961. Playing on Vince Lombardi's first three Packer squads, Bettis earned his first world championship ring with the '61 Packers.

He was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1962 and played one season there before concluding his career with another world champion, the 1963 Chicago Bears. He retired to enter private business in the Green Bay area, but returned to football with the Chiefs three years later.

"Tom was a large part of the defense that won the world championship here," says Wiggin. "He deserves to be proud of something like that and I know he's the kind of worker who'll try and restore that status as quickly as he can."

Bettis was a consensus All-America selection at Purdue in 1953 and 1954 and made the all-Big Ten squad three seasons. He co-captained the Boilermakers as a junior and senior, and co-captained the College All-Star squad that met the Cleveland Browns in 1955.

Tom and his wife, Valerie, have three daughters, Lisa, 20; Karen, 19; and Krista, 12. They make their home in Overland Park, Kansas.

TOM PRATT, Defensive Line Coach

Tom Pratt, the dean of Chiefs coaches, returns for his 15th season with the club. The 42-year-old native of Beloit, Wisconsin, has been in Kansas City as long as the Chiefs have, joining the team in 1963 following the move from Dallas.

Pratt is generally credited with the development of several outstanding Chiefs defensive lines. Kansas City's front fours were a hallmark of the club in the 1960s and early '70s and all were tutored by Pratt. Perhaps his supreme achievement was the formation of tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown that led the defensive charge in Kansas City's 1970 Super Bowl victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

"There's no question that Tom has the biggest challenge of any coach on the team," says Wiggin in reference to the rebuilding that is taking part in the rush line. "I really feel, as does Tom, that we have to make strides in this area and he's the guy to do it."

Pratt played college football from 1953-56 at Miami (Fla.). Following graduation in 1957, he became an assistant coach at his alma mater, remaining there through the 1960 season. He then spent two seasons as defensive line coach at Southern Mississippi before joining the Chiefs.

Tom and his wife, Hope, have three children, daughters Kendra, 15; and Shana, 12; and son Tyler, 6. They live in Overland Park, Kansas.

JOE SPENCER, Offensive Line Coach

The man whom Paul Wiggin describes as having "Spencerized" the players who make up the offensive line returns for his third season with Kansas City.

Joe Spencer, who's devoted 33 years to football at the collegiate and professional level, turned what once was one of the club's weakest areas into a formidable protective force that offers youth and experience as its prime assets.

"It used to be that line play was almost something you did straight by the book," Wiggin says, "but Joe's taken to teaching it for what it is. The interaction between our offensive linemen is truly remarkable and Joe's ability to relate to his people is unbelievable. He's a great field coach."

Spencer, 53, is a native of Oklahoma City. He was a tackle on both offense and defense for Oklahoma State from 1942-46, then spent five years with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the All-America Football Conference. He concluded his pro career with the NFL Cleveland Browns and Green Bay Packers.

His widespread coaching experience that includes the college ranks, NFL, CFL and WFL began at Austin (Tex.) College, where he was head coach from 1952-60.

He joined the Houston Oilers staff in the AFL in 1961 as offensive line coach. He was with the Oilers through 1965, then went to the CFL Edmonton Eskimos as offensive and defensive line coach for two years, 1966-67.

Spencer returned to the U.S. in 1968 as the New York Jets offensive line coach. He coached the Jets three years, including their '69 world championship. After coaching with St. Louis in 1971, Spencer returned to the college ranks at Kansas for 1972-73. He came to the Chiefs after spending 1974 with the WFL Chicago Fire.

Spencer and his wife, Betty Jo, have a son, Jeff, 29; and a daughter, Sara, 27. The Spencers live in Kansas City.

BOB SCHNELKER, Offensive Assistant

Bob Schnelker, whose coaching experience includes stints with Vince Lombardi at Green Bay and Don Shula at Miami, enters his third season with the Chiefs. He has responsibilities within all phases of the Chiefs offense, with emphasis on the passing game.

Schnelker, 48, begins his 15th season as an NFL assistant. He was a tight end with the New York Giants from 1954-60, playing on one world champion (1956) and three Eastern Conference title squads. He concluded his playing career in 1961 with Minnesota and Pittsburgh. With the Vikings that year, he was on the receiving end of Fran Tarkenton's first touchdown pass. Tarkenton, with 308 touchdown passes, is the NFL career leader in that category.

A two-time Pro Bowl participant, Schnelker first coached for the Los Angeles Rams from 1963-65, then Lombardi named him to his Green Bay staff in 1966. During his stay with the Packers which ended in 1971, Schnelker was a part of Green Bay's three consecutive NFL champions and two Super Bowl winners.

In 1972, Schnelker rejoined Harland Svare, whom he had assisted with the Rams, as offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers. He spent one season, 1974, with Shula at Miami before coming to Kansas City.

"Bob Schnelker has a brilliant football mind. From a standpoint of putting together offensive planning, he does it as quickly and sufficiently as anyone," says Paul Wiggin.

"His long suit is a working knowledge of not just offense but every phase of the game of football."

Born in Galion, Ohio, Schnelker attended Bowling Green and was graduated in 1953. He was originally drafted by the Cleveland Browns, but his playing rights were transferred to the Giants in time for the '54 season.

Schnelker and his wife, B.J., have three children, Mindy, 22; Jeff, 18; and Tina, 10. They make their home in Kansas City.

STEVE ORTMAYER, Special Teams Coach

Steve Ortmayer, at 33 the youngest of Paul Wiggin's assistants, has overall charge of the Chiefs kicking game, one that ranked fifth in the NFL last year.

That, however, is one of several responsibilities for Ortmayer, who also conducts the club's off-season stretching and running program and who assists the player personnel department in the area of pro scouting.

Kansas City's kicking game ranked third in the AFC and in three of the five special team categories, the Chiefs were sixth or better.

"Steve's the kind of untiring, enthusiastic guy who's done a good job in all areas," says Wiggin. "He's the type who's really involved with his people on the special teams. They like to get together with him and talk about that phase of the game. That's unusual.

"And he's done such a good job in pro scouting that several of the moves we've made have been a result of his efforts. The reason we ended up with a Walter White was because of Steve's determination."

Ortmayer came to the Chiefs from Pepper Rodgers's Georgia Tech staff, where he spent 1974 as an offensive assistant. He began his coaching career in 1967 at Colorado, his first year as a graduate assistant, then the following six as both an offensive and defensive assistant. He also directed Colorado's recruiting program three seasons.

Ortmayer is a native of Painesville, Ohio. He attended Highland Park High School in Dallas and then spent one year at Vanderbilt before transferring to LaVerne (Calif.) College. He was graduated with bachelor's degrees in English and physical education.

Steve and his wife, Merylee, make their home in Kansas City.

WAYNE RUDY, Head Trainer

Wayne Rudy, the Chiefs popular head trainer, has been with the team ever since the formation of the American Football League in 1960. Recognized nationally as one of the foremost in his field, Wayne begins his 18th season with the Texans/Chiefs.

Rudy has served athletic teams over the past 32 years. A graduate of Bowling Green University, he was inducted into his alma mater's Hall of Fame in 1975. He also holds a master's degree from Southern Methodist University. Rudy was the SMU trainer for 13 years from 1947 through 1959 before signing on with the Dallas Texans. One of the athletes he served while at SMU was a seldom-used end named Lamar Hunt, who brought Rudy into pro football upon formation of his new team and league.

Wayne was one of the founders of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association and has twice been a national director of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He has received numerous awards in the training field and in 1974 was named to the Helms Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wayne and his wife, Joan, have two sons and the family resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Assisting Rudy for the third consecutive year is Dave Kendall. Kendall graduated this past spring from Kansas State College at Pittsburg with a degree in physical education. He served as an assistant trainer at Pittsburg State and also was on the training staff at the Kansas University basketball camp held last spring. Kendall is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

BOBBY YARBOROUGH, Equipment Manager and Assistant Trainer

Bobby Yarborough has been the Chiefs equipment manager for 17 years. He attended the University of Texas where as student trainer his interest in behind-the-scenes athletics was fostered by his association with veteran Longhorns trainer Frank Medina.

Bobby is a member of the board of directors and a member of the organizing committee of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. In addition, he served as convention chairman of that group's annual meeting, which took place in Kansas City last spring.

Yarborough has also served as the director of the Chiefs off-season basketball team. This team has helped raise over a half million dollars for charity throughout the Midwest.

The Yarborough family, which includes wife Joyce and six sons, lives at Lake Winnebago.

PLAYER PERSONNEL STAFF

LES MILLER

Much of the responsibility—and credit—for the Chiefs rebuilding program lies with player personnel director Les Miller. Miller, who's personally directed the 1976 and 1977 draft efforts, came to Kansas City after serving three seasons under Bobby Beathard on the Miami Dolphins scouting staff. Miller has three full-time talent scouts under his direction and also receives player information from the BLESTO scouting combine, which the Chiefs joined in 1975.

The 40-year-old Miller is a native of Bernice, Oklahoma. He attended Oklahoma State University, then graduated from Kansas State College at Pittsburg with an education degree in 1958. For the next 13 years, Les coached at the high school and college level. He was the head football, basketball and baseball coach at Afton (Okla.) High School from 1958-60 and then coached baseball and football at two Tulsa high schools before accepting a position in private business.

Miller returned to coaching in 1967 as head football coach at Joplin (Mo.) High School. After two seasons he was named an assistant coach at Brigham Young University in charge of offensive backs until the Dolphins named him to their scouting staff in 1972.

An avid baseball fan, Miller spent two seasons, 1954-55, as a third baseman and outfielder in the New York Yankees farm system.

Miller and his wife, Joyce, have four children, Mike, 21; Debbie, 19; Marty, 8; and Matt, 5. They make their home in Overland Park, Kansas.

TOMMY O'BOYLE

J. D. HELM

BOBBY GILL

Tommy O'Boyle, J.D. Helm and Bobby Gill, all of whom have contributed greatly to the last two Chiefs drafts, all return for their third season in the player personnel department.

O'Boyle has been with the Chiefs since 1966. He served on Hank Stram's staff as both an assistant coach and head talent scout through 1974, then returned to the club at the behest of Les Miller. O'Boyle was the Chicago Bears first round draft choice in 1940 following two All-America seasons at guard for Tulane. He was named Tulane's head coach in 1962 and held that position until he resigned after the 1965 season.

Helm, 36, graduated from Kansas in 1966. He coached two years at Shawnee Mission East High School (1966-67) before moving to Brigham Young as offensive backfield coach in 1968. He remained at Brigham Young through 1974.

Gill, 41, attended Baylor University in his hometown of Waco, Texas. He began his coaching career at Ouachita Baptist in 1958, then moved to Houston in 1962. He became offensive coordinator at Tulsa in 1967 and went on to similar responsibilities at New Mexico State (1969-71) and Texas El Paso (1972-73).

CHIEFS VETERANS

TONY ADAMS

Quarterback Ht: 6-0 Wt: 198

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Utah State
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: March 19, 1950
Birthplace: San Antonio, Texas
Residence: Overland Park, Kansas

Despite playing in the shadow of starter Mike Livingston, Adams proved whenever called upon that he's a bonafide NFL quarterback . . . His most noteworthy appearances in 1976 came in relief of Livingston at Buffalo when he completed 17 of 32 passes for 319 yards and two touchdowns . . . The 300-yard figure has been reached by Chiefs quarterbacks on only 14 occasions in 17 years . . . Adams also took over for Livingston in the season finale vs. Cleveland and turned in a 15-of-29 performance for 201 yards and one score . . . His only other action, outside of holding on placekicks, came in cameo appearances against New Orleans, Denver and Oakland, when he successfully completed a pass to MacArthur Lane out of field goal formation; Lane, however, was forced out of bounds at the Oakland 1-yard line . . . He spent most of '75 as backup to Len Dawson and Livingston, but started that season's final game at Oakland . . . His passing figures in that contest were 18 completions in 31 attempts for 245 yards and a touchdown . . . Adams joined the Chiefs as a free agent from the defunct World Football League . . . His NFL career, however, began as a 14th-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1973 . . . He was one of four quarterbacks in the Chargers camp, with his competition including John Unitas and Dan Fouts . . . San Diego released him, and Adams signed with the WFL Southern California Sun for the 1974 season . . . With the Sun, he became the WFL's leading passer with 276 completions in 510 attempts for 3,905 yards, 23 touchdowns and a .541 completion average . . . His collegiate career began at Texas, where he threw 13 touchdown passes in leading the freshman team to a 5-0 record . . . He left the Longhorns when they did not include the passing game in their offensive plans, and after a year at Riverside (Calif.) Junior College, Adams transferred to Utah State . . . In three varsity seasons, he completed 456 of 867 passes for 6,226 yards and 52 touchdowns . . . He holds the NCAA record for most yards passing in a game, 561 vs. Utah . . . As a senior, finished second in the NCAA in total offense and third in passing . . . An excellent golfer who takes part in several off-season celebrity tournaments . . . Shot a hole-in-one at Brookridge Country Club in the spring of '76 . . . Also enjoys calf roping . . . Married, wife Diane, one child.

BILLY ANDREWS

Linebacker Ht: 6-0 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Waivers (from San Diego)
College: Southeast Louisiana
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: June 14, 1945
Birthplace: Clinton, Louisiana
Residence: Clinton, Louisiana

A consistent performer all season long, Andrews moved into the starting lineup at left linebacker shortly after his arrival from San Diego during training camp . . . He started all 14 games and intercepted one pass vs. Miami for an 11-yard return . . . Andrews was a 13th-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1967 and played with the Browns through 1974 . . . He was a rookie with the Browns during Paul Wiggin's final season as a Cleveland player . . . Played as a backup to Jim Houston his first three years in the league, then became the starter at right linebacker . . . The Cleveland Touchdown Club honored him as its defensive player of the year in 1971 . . . He was named the Browns defensive captain in '74, but back surgery to correct a disc problem forced him to relinquish his starting position . . . When released by the Browns, he was signed as a free agent by San Diego . . . Played in all 14 games with the Chargers and started in six on the weak side . . . He earned all-Gulf South Conference honors in 1965-66 . . . Majored in animal science . . . During the off-season, Andrews and his brother operate a beef and dairy farm of which Billy is part owner and manager . . . Married, wife Kathryn, three children.

CHARLIE ANE

Center Ht: 6-1 Wt: 233

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Michigan State
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: August 12, 1952
Birthplace: Los Angeles, California
Residence: Honolulu, Hawaii

Ane has served a capable backup apprenticeship to Jack Rudnay over the past two seasons . . . Most of his work comes in special team situations, where he's the snapper on punts and placekicks . . . Played in all 14 games last year and started the Buffalo contest when Rudany was injured . . . Ane was the fourth of four centers going into training camp in '75, but emerged with the backup role, and replaced the departed Bobby Bell as the club's snapper . . . He comes by the position naturally as his father, Charlie, snapped for the Detroit Lions . . . Single.

GARY BARBARO

Safety Ht: 6-3½ Wt: 198

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3c-1976)
College: Nicholls State
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: February 11, 1954
Birthplace: New Orleans, Louisiana
Residence: Independence, Missouri

Following an impressive rookie season that saw him earn second team all-rookie honors from Associated Press, Barbaro already is considered one of the foundations upon which the Chiefs will rebuild their defense . . . He became the starter at free safety, replacing the traded Mike Sensibaugh, from the time he reported to training camp . . . Barbaro intercepted three passes last year, including two in one game at San Diego . . . At season's end, his Chiefs teammates voted him the Mack Lee Hill Award, given annually to the club's outstanding first-year player . . . Barbaro is only the third defensive player to win the award in its 10-year history, the others being Jim Marsalis and Larry Marshall . . . Barbaro was among the first varsity football graduates at Nicholls State and currently is the only alumnus of that school playing in the National Football League . . . He played wide receiver at Nicholls in '73, then was switched to the secondary in 1974-75 . . . Played cornerback both years and intercepted nine passes, six as a senior . . . Barbaro played only one year of high school football, concentrating before that on the trombone as a member of the band . . . The Chiefs selected him on a multiple choice obtained from the New York Giants through Green Bay . . . Majored in health and physical education . . . Interests include hunting, fishing and working on automobiles . . . Married, wife Karen, one child.

RANDY BEISLER

Guard Ht: 6-5 Wt: 244

How Acquired: Trade (Nate Allen to San Francisco-1975)
College: Indiana
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: October 24, 1944
Birthplace: Gary, Indiana
Residence: Woodside, California

Severely strained neck ligaments have forced Beisler to miss the bulk of the past two seasons . . . After being obtained from the 49ers just prior to the opening of the 1975 regular season, Beisler was injured against his old teammates in that year's third game . . . The ligament damage, although it was hoped Beisler would be ready for 1976, was slower in mending than projected, thus he sat out all of last season on injured reserve . . . A mainstay of the San Francisco offensive lines of the early '70s, Beisler and a third round choice that the Chiefs used to select Keith Simons came to Kansas City in exchange for Nate Allen . . . Beisler was a first round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1966 as a defensive lineman, having played defensive end at Indiana . . . Played three years for the Eagles before being traded to the 49ers in 1969 for George Mira . . . The 49ers switched him to offense where he played both guard and tackle . . . He earned a starting guard slot in 1970 and helped protect John Brodie when the 49ers won NFC Western Division titles in 1970-71-72 . . . Following his college career, Beisler played in the North-South Game, Senior Bowl and College All-Star Game . . . He is part owner of a health and conditioning spa in Palo Alto, Calif., and also holds a California real estate license . . . Avid tennis player . . . Married, wife Judy, two children.

LARRY BRUNSON

Wide Receiver Ht: 5-11 Wt: 180

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Colorado
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: August 11, 1949
Birthplace: Little Rock, Arkansas
Residence: Denver, Colorado

Brunson's 33 receptions in 1976 led Chiefs wide receivers as he continues to progress year-to-year . . . His best day last season was a six-catch, 106-yard performance at Buffalo, followed by five receptions for 98 yards at Washington . . . He scored only one touchdown, but it was one of the biggest in Chiefs history . . . Brunson was on the receiving end of a 37-yard "flea-flicker" from Mike Livingston that beat the Redskins, 33-30, in the final minute for Kansas City's first victory of the year . . . Started all 14 games and caught passes in 12 . . .

His longest reception was 57 yards (also the team's longest) at San Diego . . . He was the Chiefs leading punt returner and set a new club record with 31 for the season that covered 387 yards . . . That was good for a fifth-place NFL finish, fourth in the AFC . . . With 51 career punt returns, Brunson is fifth on the Chiefs all-time list . . . He is only six away from undisputed second position, however . . . His longest punt return covered 48 yards at Tampa Bay and he narrowly missed a touchdown when tackled on the Buccaneers' 4-yard line . . . Brunson's best-ever individual showing as a pass receiver came in his rookie year, 1974, when he caught eight passes for 184 yards, including an 84-yard scoring pass from Len Dawson . . . That is the fifth longest in Kansas City history . . . He made the Chiefs on his third try in the NFL . . . Originally an 11th round draft choice of Denver in 1972, Brunson was cut by the Broncos and failed again with New England the following season before finding employment in Kansas City . . . Probably cinched a berth in a '74 preseason game at Los Angeles when he returned kickoffs for 81 and 41 yards and also scored a touchdown on a 66-yard pass play . . . Ran track as a collegian, where one of his teammates was Oakland sprinter Cliff Branch . . . Married, wife Susie, three children.

TIM COLLIER

Cornerback Ht: 5-11½ Wt: 166

How Acquired: Draft (No. 9-1976)
College: East Texas State
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: May 31, 1954
Birthplace: Dallas, Texas
Residence: Dallas, Texas

Collier spent the majority of his rookie season backing up both at left and right corner . . . He started two early-season games, vs. Oakland and New Orleans, when Kerry Reardon switched to safety in place of the injured Tim Gray . . . Intercepted two passes, one against the Raiders for a return of 10 yards, the other against Cleveland in the final contest of the season . . . Intercepted a total of nine passes in three varsity seasons at East Texas State, where he played both corner and safety . . . Earned first-team all-Lone Star Conference honors in 1973-74-75 . . . Ran track at ETSU with a 9.4 100 to his credit . . . Collier was used in college in both punt and kickoff return capacities, played primarily on special teams with the Chiefs, but had no return figures . . . Single.

TOM CONDON

Guard Ht: 6-3 Wt: 240

How Acquired: Draft (No. 10-1974)
College: Boston College
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: October 26, 1952
Birthplace: Derby, Connecticut
Residence: Brighton, Massachusetts

One of the reasons for the emergence of the Chiefs offensive line in 1976 was the improved play of Tom Condon . . . He started in 13 of 14 games after coming back from a knee injury that sidelined him the second half of the '75 season . . . Condon was one of the most consistent performers gradewise the past two seasons . . . After spending all of his rookie year on special teams, he earned a starting right guard slot in '75, only to injure his knee against Pittsburgh that required surgery . . . He came to Boston College without a scholarship, but added 30 pounds to a 190-pound frame by his sophomore year and won a starting guard position . . . Played regularly at BC from the middle of his first varsity season . . . A consistent dean's list scholar as an undergraduate, Condon spent the off-season in law school at the University of Baltimore . . . Majored in sociology and philosophy while at BC . . . Married, wife Virginia.

JIMBO ELROD

Linebacker Ht: 6-0 Wt: 209

How Acquired: Draft (No. 5b-1976)
College: Oklahoma
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: May 25, 1954
Birthplace: Memphis, Tennessee
Residence: Norman, Oklahoma

Elrod's rookie season was curtailed rather abruptly when a locker room accident resulted in a shoulder separation . . . He was demonstrating wrestling positions with Willie Lanier when Lanier accidentally fell onto Elrod's shoulder . . . Surgery was necessary, but Elrod should be 100% when training camp starts . . . He played six games overall and started in three . . . A very aggressive player who, says his coach Paul Wiggin, has an overwhelming compulsion to get where the football is . . . Starred at defensive end for the 1975 national champion Sooners, but made the successful switch to linebacker in the pros . . . Oklahoma coaches had considered moving him there before his senior season . . . A first team All-America selection by both AP and UPI in 1975, Elrod led Oklahoma with 20 sacks for 88 yards in losses . . . He also recovered three fumbles and was third in total tackles behind Leroy and Dewey Selmon . . . Quickness and his aggressive nature are his biggest assets, helping compensate for lack of great size . . . Wrestled as a freshman and sophomore and Elrod credits the experience with helping his speed and quickness . . . A three-year letterman at Oklahoma, during which time the Sooners were national champions on two occasions (1973 and '75) . . . The Chiefs drafted him on a supplemental fifth round pick obtained from Houston . . . Majored in arts and sciences . . . Interests include hunting and fishing . . . Single.

LAWRENCE ESTES

Defensive End/Tackle Ht: 6-6 Wt: 250

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Alcorn A&M
NFL Experience: 6
Birthdate: December 9, 1946
Birthplace: Louisville, Mississippi
Residence: Amory, Mississippi

Estes led the Chiefs in quarterback sacks with 5½ although he did not see fulltime duty . . . Played in all 14 games, but started in only three . . . Estes played mainly at the end position as he, Bob Maddox and John Lohmeyer shuttled in and out of the tackle and end slots . . . Estes joined the Chiefs for the final four games of the 1975 season following the collapse of the World Football League . . . He had signed with Southern California of the WFL in '74, was traded to the New York Stars, then went to Birmingham early in the season . . . He was a member of the only WFL championship team . . . Estes's NFL career got under way as an eighth round draft choice of New Orleans in 1970 . . . He played with the Saints through '71, when he was released and picked up by Philadelphia . . . Let go by the Eagles during '73 preseason and did not play the rest of that year . . . A player who, in the Chiefs defensive scheme, controls his area well . . . Named to the all-SWAC team in college, plus some All-America squads . . . Majored in health and physical education . . . Married, wife Joyce, one child.

CHARLIE GETTY

Guard Ht: 6-4 Wt: 260

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1974)
College: Penn State
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: July 24, 1952
Birthplace: Paterson, New Jersey
Residence: Raytown, Missouri

A successful position switch from tackle to guard by Getty in the third game of the regular season gave Kansas City's offensive line the best cohesion it has had to date . . . A starter at left tackle since his rookie year, Getty moved to left guard, thus making room for Matt Herkenhoff at tackle . . . Getty has now started 42 consecutive games in the offensive line . . . His continued development, along with that of Herkenhoff, Tom Condon and Jim Nicholson, was a definite factor in the Chiefs offensive success a year ago . . . Following his first year, Getty was named to the NFL's all-rookie team . . . A two-year starter under Joe Paterno at Penn State, he played right tackle in three consecutive Nittany Lions bowl appearances (Cotton in 1972, Sugar in '73 and Orange in '74) . . . Also an outstanding collegiate wrestler, finishing fifth in the '73 NCAA championships, his first year at the collegiate level . . . Improved to third in '74 competition . . . Played offensive and defensive tackle at Pompton Lakes (N.J.) High School, where he also competed on the track and wrestling teams . . . Maintained a 3.2 average as a physical education-recreation major at Penn State . . . Getty is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and spends numerous hours speaking on behalf of church groups in the greater Kansas City area . . . Married, wife Carol.

TIM GRAY

Safety Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200

How Acquired: Trade (Marvin Upshaw and Mike Sensibaugh to St. Louis-1976)
College: Texas A&M
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: November 11, 1952
Birthplace: Houston, Texas
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

One of the top trade acquisitions of the Paul Wiggin era, Gray came over from St. Louis and immediately won the strong safety slot vacated by Jim Kearney . . . A knee strain suffered in the preseason, however, delayed his first regular season start until the season's fourth week . . . Played in 12 games overall, starting in 11 . . . The St. Louis Cardinals first draft choice in 1975, Gray played mostly on special teams with the Cardinals, but was one of the leading performers on those units . . . He and Gary Barbaro quickly teamed up at safety and earned reputations as hard-hitting defenders and the anchors of the Chiefs rebuilding secondary . . . The Cardinals had him playing backup corner to Roger Wehrli and the now-departed Norm Thompson, but Chiefs secondary coach Tom Bettis slated him at Kearney's old position from the moment he was obtained by Kansas City . . . Finished second on the club in interceptions (to Kerry Reardon) with four for 19 yards . . . His longest interception return, 11 yards, came against the Steelers at Arrowhead . . . Gray was a consensus all-Southwest Conference selection and a second team All-America choice by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. as a senior at Texas A&M . . . Started two years for the Aggies after transferring from Navarro (Tex.) Junior College . . . Majored in physical education . . . Married, wife Beverly, two children.

WOODY GREEN

Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1-1974)
College: Arizona State
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: June 20, 1951
Birthplace: Warren, Arkansas
Residence: Portland, Oregon

A succession of injuries has prevented Green from reaching the stardom predicted for him when Kansas City made him its first draft choice three years ago . . . He started the first six games of 1976 before a knee injury at Miami that required surgery sidelined him for the balance of the season . . . His top outing last year was a 20-carry, 82-yard performance against New Orleans . . . Though he has never enjoyed a complete, injury-free season, Green nonetheless led the Chiefs in rushing in both 1974 and '75 . . . Gained 611 yards on 167 carries in '75 to go along with 509 on 135 carries as a rookie . . . Green's best day rushing came in his first season, 146 yards on 23 carries at San Diego . . . He also had a 114-yard effort at Denver . . . In '75, he rushed for 135 yards on 19 carries in Kansas City's overtime win against Detroit . . . His 42-yard run in that contest set up Jan Stenerud's winning field goal . . . MacArthur Lane also rushed for over 100 yards that day, marking the second time in Texans/Chiefs history two runners went over the century figure in the same game . . . Abner Haynes and Jack Spikes first accomplished the feat vs. Houston in 1961 at Dallas . . . Green's four 100-plus days are fourth best in team history behind Haynes (12), Mike Garrett and Ed Podolak (7 each) . . . Green played in 10 of 14 games as a rookie, 12 of 14 in 1975 and six a year ago . . . Missed the first two and last two regular season games in '74 with an old collarbone injury that was corrected by surgery . . . A dislocated knee knocked him out of two '75 contests . . . His longest career pass reception came in '74, a 69-yard touchdown from Len Dawson at San Diego . . . His teammates voted him the Mack Lee Hill trophy in '74, awarded annually to the team's outstanding rookie . . . Green was the 16th player selected in the first round of the 1974 draft

. . . A two-time All-America at Arizona State . . . Rushed for 3,806 yards in three varsity seasons . . . His best year was as a junior, 209 carries for 1,382 yards and 15 touchdowns . . . Played in 10 of 11 games as a senior, and rushed for 1,182 yards and nine touchdowns . . . Scored 33 touchdowns overall . . . Played in two Fiesta Bowl games for the Sun Devils . . . Scored four touchdowns against Missouri in the '72 contest . . . Majored in social welfare . . . Married, wife Karen, three children.

GLYNN HARRISON

Running Back Ht: 5-11 Wt: 191

How Acquired: Waivers (from San Diego)
College: Georgia
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: May 25, 1954
Birthplace: Atlanta, Georgia
Residence: Athens, Georgia

A ninth round draft choice of San Diego in 1976, Harrison was waived to the Chiefs during training camp . . . He made a noticeable impression with his kick return abilities, but Kansas City had to let him go on the final cutdown prior to opening day . . . When injuries struck in the offensive backfield, however, the Chiefs re-signed him as a free agent at midseason . . . The major share of Harrison's work came on the kickoff return unit, where he returned 13 kicks for 278 yards and a 21.4 average . . . His long of 35 came against Cincinnati at Arrowhead . . . During the preseason, Harrison returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown against Detroit . . . In overall preseason figures, Harrison had 17 punt returns for 230 yards and a 13.5 average, nine kickoff returns for 179 yards and a 19.9 mark . . . Late in the regular season he was used in the backfield and carried 16 times for 41 yards with a long of seven . . . Harrison earned all-Southeastern Conference recognition from both Associated Press and United Press International in 1974 and '75 . . . Set a Georgia career rushing record with 2,026 yards and a 6.4 average . . . Carried for 894 yards as a junior, 959 as a senior . . . Played in the Cotton, Tangerine and Peach Bowls with the Bulldogs . . . Earned second team Academic All-America honors while majoring in political science . . . Interests include golf and tennis . . . Single.

MATT HERKENHOFF

Tackle Ht: 6-4 Wt: 255

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4-1974)
College: Minnesota
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: April 12, 1951
Birthplace: Melrose, Minnesota
Residence: Bloomington, Minnesota

Herkenhoff became a starter at left tackle in the third game of the 1976 season and quickly developed into one of the team's most dependable linemen . . . To get him into the regular lineup, Charlie Getty made a position switch from tackle to guard . . . Herkenhoff spent all of 1975 on the injured reserve list, having suffered an ankle injury during the preseason . . . He was drafted in the fourth round by Kansas City in 1974, but elected to play with the New York Stars (nee Charlotte Hornets) of the late World Football League . . . A two-year starter at left tackle for Minnesota, Herkenhoff was voted the Gophers most valuable offensive player at the conclusion of the 1973 season . . . Earned honorable mention honors in all-Big Ten balloting . . . Played tight end in high school . . . Majored in sociology and spent the off-season working with Volunteers of America in Minneapolis . . . Single.

MAC ARTHUR LANE

Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Trade (Draft choice to Green Bay-1975)
College: Utah State
NFL Experience: 10
Birthdate: March 16, 1942
Birthplace: Oakland, California
Residence: Oakland, California

With a personal-high 66 pass receptions that led the National Football League, Lane enjoyed one of his best seasons in nine as a professional . . . The reception total is second in Chiefs history, bettered only by Chris Burford's 68 in 1962 . . . Lane's previous pass receiving high had been 34 at Green Bay in 1974 . . . His '76 total was the most in the NFL since Lydell Mitchell of Baltimore caught 72 in 1974 . . . His 248 career receptions are seventh in the AFC behind Fred Biletnikoff (536), Paul Warfield (409), Gary Garrison (404), Bob Trumpy (280), Haven Moses (277) and Chiefs teammate Ed Podolak (256) . . . Podolak and Lane are numbers one and two among active running back pass receivers in the NFL . . . Lane's best '76 pass catching efforts came against Denver, seven receptions in each of two games . . . He also had six against San Diego on two occasions, six against Oakland and Cleveland, and four receptions in each of seven other contests . . . Lane also led the Chiefs in rushing with 542 yards . . . His 4,300 career rushing yards rank sixth among active AFC rushers and he could move as high as third or fourth this year . . . Ahead of him are Altie Taylor (4,308), Lydell Mitchell (4,328), Marv Hubbard (4,394), Franco Harris

(5,133) and O.J. Simpson (9,626) . . . His high game rushing in 1976 came against Denver at Arrowhead, 67 yards on 17 carries . . . He also had a 60-yard output at Washington . . . The Chiefs obtained Lane from the Packers prior to the opening of '75 training camp for a third round 1976 draft choice . . . He was injured in a preseason game against his old teammates, thus his Chiefs regular season debut was delayed until the season's fifth game . . . His high game rushing in a Kansas City uniform came against Detroit in 1975 when both he and Woody Green cracked the 100-yard barrier against the Lions . . . Lane carried for 108 yards which included a 39-yard run, his longest since 1972 . . . Stayed injury-free in 1976, starting all 14 games, though bruised ribs in the Pittsburgh game forced him to miss most of one half . . . Lane began his NFL career as a number one draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1968 . . . Played four seasons in St. Louis before Green Bay traded for him in exchange for Donny Anderson, who'd been a number one for the Packers . . . His top rushing year was 1970 at St. Louis, 977 yards on 206 carries . . . Scored 11 touchdowns that season, including one scoring run of 75 yards, and was the third-leading NFC rusher . . . Carried for 146 yards against Washington in '70, his best output ever . . . Lane led Green Bay in receiving two of his three seasons with the Packers, 1972 and '73 . . . An excellent blocker, Lane opened many of the holes for John Brockington when Brockington had 1,000-yard rushing seasons those same two years . . . An Oakland resident through all his 34 years, Lane attended Merritt Junior College there prior to transferring to Utah State . . . Began college career as a linebacker, but was switched to running back his junior year . . . Attends to several business interests in Oakland during the off-season . . . Married, wife Edna, three children.

WILLIE LANIER

Linebacker Ht: 6-1 Wt: 245

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1967)
College: Morgan State
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: August 21, 1945
Birthplace: Clover, Virginia
Residence: Midlothian, Virginia

By Willie Lanier standards, 1976 was not one of his better years; it would have been a satisfactory season for most others at his position . . . Lanier missed going to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the first time in seven seasons, but will return this year as one of the veteran hands in a largely rebuilt, youth-oriented defense . . . His skills, though, are still most evident and he devoted much of last year imparting that knowledge to his understudy, Jimbo Elrod . . . Lanier started 11 games, giving way to Elrod in the other three . . . He intercepted three passes, running his career total to 27 . . . That puts him in fourth place on the Chiefs all-time list and he is now the leading interceptor among linebackers, having passed Bobby Bell who retired with 26 . . . His interception high was 1975, when he picked off five, including a 61-yard theft of a Ken Stabler pass against Oakland . . . That was the second longest interception for him, the best being a 75-yard touchdown vs. San Diego in 1968, the fourth longest return in club history . . . Lanier is now in the final year of a three-season agreement with the Chiefs . . . He ended a brief retirement during the spring of 1975 . . . Prior to the '74 season, Lanier had announced his intention to leave football to pursue a business career with the Philip Morris tobacco company . . . Philip Morris subsequently granted him a leave of absence to continue playing with the Chiefs . . . After living in the Kansas City area for many years, Lanier recently moved his family to Virginia to be closer to his business interests . . . With 27 interceptions in 10 seasons, Lanier currently ranks in a seventh-place tie among active AFC interceptors . . . He was voted the most valuable defensive player in the 1971 Pro Bowl . . . He was selected the NFL Man of the Year in 1972 as the outstanding pro football citizen-athlete by vote of the nation's fans . . . Became the first Chief to win the award, then Len Dawson earned it the following year . . . Five $5,000 scholarships were given to area high school students in his name as a result of the honor . . . Lanier earned the starting middle linebacker's job four games into his rookie season and, save for some injuries here and there, has held it for the past decade . . . Majored in business administration . . . Married, wife Cheryl, two children.

WILLIE LEE

Defensive Tackle Ht: 6-4½ Wt: 249

How Acquired: Draft (No. 5a-1976)
College: Bethune-Cookman
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: July 13, 1950
Birthplace: Daytona Beach, Florida
Residence: Daytona Beach, Florida

Lee was employed mainly in reserve situations his rookie season, though he did start three games and appeared in all 14 overall . . . Finished the year with one quarterback sack . . . Something of an "old" rookie at age 26, Lee played three years of service football prior to his experience at Bethune-Cookman . . . Very strong in the upper body, his needs at this point are the craftiness and know-how that come with playing on a regular basis . . . Single.

MIKE LIVINGSTON

Quarterback Ht: 6-4 Wt: 211

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1968)
College: Southern Methodist
NFL Experience: 10
Birthdate: November 14, 1945
Birthplace: Dallas, Texas
Residence: Grandview, Missouri

Livingston silenced all doubts as to his ability with a performance last season that earned him his teammates vote as the Chiefs most valuable player . . . The catalyst of an offense that ranked seventh in the National Football League and third in the AFC, Livingston was the 10th-rated passer with 189 completions in 338 attempts for 2,682 yards, a .559 percentage average and 12 touchdowns . . . His yardage figure was the third highest in Kansas City history . . . Livingston's best day ever came in the Chiefs come-from-behind win at Washington . . . He completed 15-of-29 for 332 yards and two touchdowns, including a 37-yard "flea-flicker" pass to Larry Brunson that won the game with less than a minute to play . . . Livingston was the fifth-ranked passer in the AFC last year . . . Other 1976 highlights included a 20-of-33, 267-yard outing in Kansas City's overtime win at Miami and a 22-of-33, 290-yard, one touchdown performance against Denver at Arrowhead . . . Although he appeared in all 14 games, Livingston gave way to temporary injury on two occasions . . . He dislocated the index finger on his throwing hand at Buffalo, but rebounded the following week against the Redskins . . . Then, in the seasons finale vs. Cleveland, he suffered a separated shoulder that has repaired itself in the off-season . . . After seven years in the shadows as Len Dawson's backup, Livingston claimed the number one job for himself in 1975 . . . Winning the job in training camp, Livingston was injured in the season opener, a separated sternum that kept him out of two games . . . He returned in time to lead the Chiefs 42-10 rout of Oakland at Arrowhead, Paul Wiggin's first victory as head coach . . . Livingston then led the Chiefs to four victories in six games before he injured the cruciate ligament in his left knee at Pittsburgh, requiring surgery that sidelined him for the balance of the season . . . Nonetheless, he finished 1975 as the seventh rated passer in the AFC, completing 88 of 176 attempts for 1,245 yards and eight touchdowns . . . He led the team in passing in 1973 with 75 completions in 145 attempts for 916 yards and six touchdowns . . . That was good for a number seven ranking in the AFC . . . Livingston first came to prominence as Dawson's backup in the 1969 Super Bowl season . . . When Dawson was injured in the second game of that year, Livingston engineered six consecutive victories after an initial loss to Cincinnati . . . He started two games in 1972 and produced victories over Denver and Cincinnati before giving way to a pulled leg muscle . . . Ranks second to Dawson in career touchdown passes, 41, and has thrown three in one game on two occasions . . . In '69 relief of Dawson, he was the AFL's fourth-rated passer . . . Livingston set a Chiefs record for the longest pass play in the team's history, 93 yards, vs. Miami in 1969 . . . His longest effort last year was a 57-yarder to Brunson . . . In '75, he hooked up with Walter White for a 69-yard touchdown in the season opener . . . Most adept as a runner, Livingston on two occasions has had the club's longest run from scrimmage in a season . . . He had a 51-yard jaunt in 1972 then a 28-yard advance the following year . . . Ran for two touchdowns last year to give him five for a career in which he's carried for 551 yards on 112 attempts . . . Ranks behind Dawson in career attempts (1,089), completions (566), yards gained passing (7,430), touchdown passes (41) and interceptions (51) . . . His 189 completions in '76 are fourth best in Kansas City history . . . Livingston broke most of Don Meredith's passing records at SMU . . . Works for a pipe manufacturing firm in the Kansas City area during the off-season . . . Also devotes much of his off-season time to golf and plays regularly in tournament competition, including the Kansas and Missouri amateurs . . . Married, wife Pat, three children.

JOHN LOHMEYER

Defensive End Ht: 6-4 Wt: 229

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4a-1973)
College: Emporia State
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: January 15, 1951
Birthplace: Emporia, Kansas
Residence: Emporia, Kansas

Lohmeyer started 10 games at both tackle and end in the Chiefs defensive line, played in 13 overall, and for the first time in his young career was able to avoid injury for most of a season . . . He did incur a strained knee in the next-to-last game against Denver and spent much of the off-season getting it back in condition . . . Despite missing seven games in 1975 because of a shoulder ailment, it was nonetheless a rewarding and pivotal season for Lohmeyer and he added to that foundation last year . . . He missed the entire 1974 season recovering from a near-crippling neck injury that took place late in the '73 season . . . That mishap occurred in a kickoff situation against Cleveland at Arrowhead . . . Prior to the injury, he had enjoyed a promising rookie season that saw him become a steady performer on the special teams . . . Registered four sacks in '76 to rank behind leader Lawrence Estes (5½) in that category . . . Had one the previous year . . . In Chiefs '73 win over Houston, Lohmeyer forced a fumble, recovered it on the run and went 19 yards for a touchdown to cap a 38-14 victory . . . A two-time all-Great Plains Athletic Conference selection as a defensive lineman at nearby Emporia (Ks.) State . . . Named NAIA All-America his senior year . . . Earned his master's degree in education from Emporia State during the off-season . . . Married, wife Lynn.

JIM LYNCH

Linebacker Ht: 6-1 Wt: 225

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1967)
College: Notre Dame
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: August 28, 1945
Birthplace: Lima, Ohio
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Consistent as he is durable, Lynch completed his ninth season as the club's right linebacker and has never missed a game in 10 years . . . His string now numbers 140 games in succession . . . Intercepted two passes in 1976, his first thefts since '73 . . . His fourth-quarter steal at Washington stalled a Redskins drive in a game the Chiefs later won in the last minute . . . Lynch's other interception came in the season finale vs. Cleveland . . . Played two games in 1972 and '73 in the middle when Willie Lanier was injured . . . Captained Notre Dame's 1966 national championship team that included such future NFL players as Alan Page, Rocky Bleier, George Kunz, Bob Kuechenberg, Terry Hanratty, Nick Eddy and Pete Duranko . . . Twenty of the 22 starters on that club were drafted by the pros . . . Lynch won the Maxwell Trophy as a senior, awarded to the nation's outstanding defensive player . . . Made Newspaper Enterprise Assn. all-league team in 1968 and played in the AFL All-Star Game in '69 . . . Majored in sociology . . . A partner with D. Thomas and Associates, a food brokerage firm in Kansas City, during off-season . . . Active in several fund-raising and charity ventures . . . Married, wife Georgia, two children.

BOB MADDOX

Defensive End Ht: 6-5 Wt: 249

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Frostburg State
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: May 2, 1949
Birthplace: Braddock Heights, Maryland
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Maddox goes into 1977 hopeful of avoiding the knee problems that have plagued him over the past two years . . . After joining the Chiefs once the '75 regular season opened, he played well until struck down by torn ligaments and cartilage in midseason at Pittsburgh . . . The subsequent surgery sidelined him for the balance of that campaign and, despite a vigorous off-season conditioning program, his return to active duty was delayed until the sixth week of the '76 regular season . . . Once he returned, however, he made a vast improvement in the club's pass rush . . . Finished in a second-place tie with John Lohmeyer in sacks with four . . . Maddox joined Kansas City after the third game of the 1975 season . . . His pro career began with the Cincinnati Bengals as that team's seventh round draft choice in 1973 . . . Played mostly on special teams with the Bengals in '73 and '74 . . . Highlight of his pro career occurred when he blocked a Jerrel Wilson punt and recovered for a touchdown against the Chiefs in '74 . . . Played both defensive end and tackle last season, but is projected as an end for this year . . . Has a total of six sacks in two years with Kansas City . . . Raised over $1,000 in personal pledges for his participation in the March of Dimes Walk-athon, a 30-mile event he completed in just over three hours . . . Active in numerous charitable and educational pursuits in the off-season . . . Single.

HENRY MARSHALL

Wide Receiver Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3d-1976)
College: Missouri
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: August 9, 1954
Birthplace: Douglass, Georgia
Residence: Columbia, Missouri

No. 89—for years the numeral that meant Otis Taylor—was worn by Marshall last year with the same dynamic results that were the trademark of his predecessor . . . Marshall started all 14 games in a season that saw him finish fourth on the club in receiving with 28 receptions for 443 yards and two touchdowns . . . Caught four passes on two occasions, vs. New Orleans and Denver, and had three in each of four other contests . . . Marshall also turned in the Chiefs longest run of the season when he went 59 yards in the rain at Miami on an end-around reverse that pulled the Chiefs in front of the Dolphins late in a game Kansas City later won in overtime . . . Carried only five times, but had 101 rushing yards, fifth on the club . . . Caught two touchdown passes, one of 20 yards from Mike Livingston against New Orleans, and a 31-yard toss, his longest of the season, from Tony Adams at Buffalo . . . Marshall came to the Chiefs on a third round pick obtained from Houston in the Curley Culp trade . . . His outstanding senior season at Missouri more than offset a mediocre junior year, when he caught five passes for 62 yards and a touchdown . . . His senior year figures in 1975 read: 44 receptions, 945 yards and nine touchdowns with a long of 75 yards . . . Possesses a smooth, fluid stride and longtime Chiefs watchers believe Marshall runs much like Taylor in his prime . . . Earned honorable mention All-America honors in 1975 from both Associated Press and United Press International . . . American Football Coaches Assn. and NEA both placed him on their first-team All-America squads . . . Participated in Blue-Gray and Hula Bowl games following his senior season . . . Returned to Missouri this past off-season to complete work on his economics degree . . . Single.

BILLY MASTERS

Tight End Ht: 6-5 Wt: 240

How Acquired: Past Considerations (from Denver)
College: Louisiana State
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: March 15, 1944
Birthplace: Grayson, Louisiana
Residence: Wheat Ridge, Colorado

Together with Walter White, Masters helps give the Chiefs one of the best tight end tandems in the National Football League . . . Despite a recurring back problem that required off-season surgery for removal of a disc, Masters caught 18 passes last year for 269 yards and three touchdowns . . . The injury forced him out of the season's final four games . . . Caught four passes for 79 yards and a score in the season opener vs. San Diego and four for 41 against Denver . . . Masters returned to the team that originally drafted him during 1975 training camp . . . He was the Chiefs third round draft choice in 1967, though he was traded that year to the Buffalo Bills . . . Played three seasons with the Bills, during which he had his finest year, 33 catches for 387 yards and one touchdown, in 1969 . . . Traded to Denver in 1970, he played two full years in 1971 and '72 prior to the entrance and development of all-pro Riley Odoms with the Broncos . . . His '75 effort with the Chiefs was one of his best, 24 catches for 314 yards and three touchdowns . . . Worked for Riss International trucking firm during the off-season . . . Interests include golf . . . Married, wife Georgia, two children.

PAT McNEIL

Running Back Ht: 5-9 Wt: 208

How Acquired: Draft (No. 17-1976)
College: Baylor
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: February 28, 1954
Birthplace: Pittsburg, California
Residence: Waco, Texas

The lowest drafted player to make an NFL roster in 1976, McNeil played mainly on special teams last year . . . Rushed eight times for 26 yards and caught two passes for 33 . . . Also returned two kickoffs for 21 yards . . . A short, fireplug type runner much in the same mold as Robert Holmes, who played for the Chiefs in their championship years . . . McNeil was second among Baylor rushers in 1975, his senior year, with 130 carries for 753 yards and two touchdowns . . . It was by far his best season in four, eclipsing his previous high of 459 as a junior . . . Would like to enter coaching when he's finished playing . . . Returned to Baylor this past off-season to begin work on a master's degree . . . Majored in physical education . . . Married, wife Ann.

JIM NICHOLSON

Tackle Ht: 6-6 Wt: 275

How Acquired: Trade (Draft choice to Los Angeles-1974)
College: Michigan State
NFL Experience: 4
Birthdate: February 28, 1949
Birthplace: Honolulu, Hawaii
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Overcoming the sore knees that plagued him in 1975, Nicholson started all 14 games at right tackle last year . . . One of the team's highest-grading pass blockers, he came to Kansas City in exchange for a fifth round 1975 draft choice from Los Angeles, which had drafted him ninth in 1973 . . . He spent that year on the Rams reserve squad, then was traded to the Chiefs during the '74 preseason . . . When Dave Hill was injured early in the regular season, Nicholson took over his tackle spot and has been there ever since . . . Played guard, tackle and tight end at Michigan State . . . Missed the 1971 college season due to back surgery . . . Played in the Hula Bowl and Blue-Gray all-star games . . . Replaced Jack Rudnay as the Chiefs player representative and made several off-season journeys to Washington, D.C. for meetings that resulted in a collective bargaining agreement between the players and owners . . . Devotes much of his free time to several charitable causes in the Kansas City area . . . Took up golf two years ago and has developed into a fine player in that time . . . Married, wife Janet.

MIKE NOTT

Quarterback Ht: 6-3 Wt: 200

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Santa Clara
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: May 19, 1952
Birthplace: Eureka, California
Residence: Prairie Village, Kansas

Nott's sole 1976 playing time came in the waning moments of the Chiefs 45-0 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers . . . Under a fierce rush from a Pittsburgh front four that was determined to hand Kansas City its first shutout loss since 1963, Nott completed four of 10 passes for 46 yards . . . One of the completions was a 23-yard attempt to Walter White as the Chiefs struggled unsuccessfully to get on the scoreboard . . . He began the 1975 training period as the seventh—and last—quarterback in camp, but several good outings in scrimmages warranted a further look at his abilities . . . Nott saw action in three of six '76 preseason encounters . . . Completed seven of 17 passes for 100 yards in the summertime opener vs. Houston, then was three-of-11 for 69 yards at San Francisco . . . Played briefly vs. St. Louis, completing four of six attempts for 43 yards . . . Nott's first game appearance ever was against Detroit in the '75 preseason . . . Entering the game in the fourth quarter, his first pass was a screen attempt which the receiver batted into the air and a Lions linebacker picked it off for a touchdown . . . On the next series, Nott threw a 50-yard touchdown pass that pulled the Chiefs to within three points of the eventually-victorious Lions . . . He saw further action that year against Green Bay, but suffered a strained arm on a fumble . . . He was held out the rest of the preseason, then placed on injured reserve for the season . . . Chiefs coaches believe he has outstanding potential, but simply lacks experience . . . Nott played sparingly in three years at Santa Clara, completing 54 of 113 passes for 798 yards and three touchdowns on a run-oriented team . . . His most active year was as a junior, when he was 31-of-64 for 393 yards and a touchdown . . . Santa Clara switched to a wishbone offense when he was a senior, thus Nott was used infrequently and was not drafted . . . Played in 1972-73-74 at Santa Clara after redshirting in '71 . . . He is expected to make a stronger '76 challenge for duty in competition with Mike Livingston and Tony Adams . . . Married, wife Patty.

ORRIN OLSEN

Center Ht: 6-1 Wt: 245

How Acquired: Draft (No. 8-1976)
College: Brigham Young
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: July 7, 1953
Birthplace: Logan, Utah
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

The third Olsen to play in the National Football League, much of Orrin's rookie year was spent on special teams . . . He played capably in that capacity and was usually the first tackler downfield on kickoff coverage . . . Played both center and guard and he will be tested at both positions in training camp . . . A two-year starter at Brigham Young, he's the brother of retired Rams great Merlin and Denver center Phil Olsen . . . Earned all-Western Athletic Conference honors at center after both his junior and senior seasons . . . Was a unanimous choice following BYU's championship 1974 season . . . Olsen was voted the WAC's player of the week that year after a fine performance against Arizona State . . . Began his college career in his brother Merlin's position, defensive tackle, but made the switch to center because his coaches felt he could help the team more at that position . . . Competed in the discus at BYU with a lifetime best of 176'2" . . . Also wrestled in the heavyweight division in high school, when he played as a defensive end and tackle in football . . . Majored in business management . . . Married, wife Sandy, two children.

WHITNEY PAUL

Defensive End Ht: 6-3 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Draft (No. 10-1976)
College: Colorado
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: October 8, 1953
Birthplace: Galveston, Texas
Residence: Galveston, Texas

Paul started the 1976 regular season as the 43rd man on a 43-man squad . . . He ended it by starting at left defensive end and is considered one of the club's defensive bright spots for the future . . . His primary asset is quickness, as evidenced in the Chiefs season finale vs. Cleveland when he sacked Browns quarterback Brian Sipe twice and harassed him the rest of the time . . . Paul earned his first start in week seven, vs. Denver at Arrowhead, and opened every game thereafter . . . Played in all 14 overall and was a valuable special teams player as well . . . Finished the year with 3½ sacks, good for third place on the club behind Lawrence Estes (5½), Bob Maddox and John Lohmeyer (4 each) . . . Paul was a two-year starter at Colorado and was one of 10 CU players drafted in 1976 . . . He began his college career as a sophomore tight end but switched to defense his final two seasons . . . Participated in the high jump and shot put in addition to football in high school . . . Also high-jumped in college with a lifetime best of 6-10 . . . Majored in recreation . . . Single.

BARRY PEARSON

Wide Receiver Ht: 5-11 Wt: 185

How Acquired: Trade (Draft choice to Pittsburgh-1974)
College: Northwestern
NFL Experience: 6
Birthdate: February 4, 1950
Birthplace: Geneseo, Illinois
Residence: Avon, Connecticut

A knee injury that required preseason surgery failed to come around as quickly as expected, thus 1976 was a frustrating season for Pearson . . . He did not catch a single pass as most of his limited activity was in special teams situations . . . He played in the final eight games of the season . . . Had cartilage removed from his left knee after persistent soreness developed during early training camp workouts . . . Unfortunately, the original four-to-six-week recovery period did not materialize and Pearson was sidelined until the Chiefs visited Miami in the sixth week of the regular season . . . Versatility, craftiness and an ability to hang on to the football made Pearson one of the club's valuable assets in 1974 and '75 . . . Finished in the runner-up spot among receivers both years to Ed Podolak, but had his best season in '75 when he caught 36 passes, nine over his '74 high of 27, for 608 yards and three touchdowns . . . His best individual day that season came in the season closer at Oakland when he caught six passes from Tony Adams for 103 yards and one touchdown . . . Had at least three receptions in each of seven other games that year . . . The '76 knee problems did not prevent him from being one of the team's best special teams performers, a role he's played ever since joining Kansas City just prior to the 1974 campaign . . . The Chiefs sent an eighth round 1975 draft choice to Pittsburgh for his services . . . His best days in '74 came against his old mates, the Steelers, four catches for 92 yards and against the New York Giants, six receptions for 79 yards . . . Pittsburgh signed him as a free agent after Pearson led the Big Ten in receiving in 1970 and '71 . . . He spent 1972 on Pittsburgh's taxi squad, but then started 10 games in '73 and finished as the Steelers' second leading receiver with 23 catches for 317 yards and three touchdowns . . . Caught a touchdown pass in Pittsburgh's '73 playoff game at Oakland . . . He caught 90 passes in three seasons at Northwestern, for 1,362 yards . . . Pearson was a freshman when Chiefs teammate Jack Rudnay was finishing his college career as a senior . . . During the off-season, Pearson works for a meat packaging and distribution firm in Connecticut . . . Played as a running back in high school . . . Majored in history . . . Married, wife Linda, one child.

ED PODOLAK

Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1969)
College: Iowa
NFL Experience: 9
Birthdate: September 1, 1947
Birthplace: Atlantic, Iowa
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Now the leading all-time rusher in Chiefs history, Podolak at last shook the series of injuries that curtailed his effectiveness until the final quarter of the 1976 season . . . A chest injury restricted Podolak in the early portion of the campaign, then a pulled hamstring at Miami kept him out of three of the next four games with only a token appearance in that one contest . . . He started the final four games, gained over 100 yards in two of them, and in the process broke Abner Haynes's record for most career yards . . . Podolak now has 3,901 yards in eight seasons, surpassing Haynes's 3,834 . . . Podolak carried 25 times for 127 yards at San Diego, then set the record in a 29-carry, 137-yard effort in the season finale vs. Cleveland . . . The two 100-yard games gave him seven overall, tying him with Mike Garrett for second place on the Chiefs all-time list . . . Haynes has 12 . . . Podolak ranks ninth among active AFC rushers . . . He is sixth among active AFC pass receivers with 256 receptions, but is first in the NFL among running backs . . . He and teammate MacArthur Lane are one-two in this category . . . Just in front of Podolak among the pass receivers are Haves Moses (277) and Bob Trumpy (280), both of whom have played one more season than Podolak . . . He's third on the Chiefs pass receiving list behind Otis Taylor (410) and Chris Burford (391) . . . His 12 receptions vs. Denver in 1973 set another record . . . Podolak's best performance of his career, one that enhanced a national reputation, was in the Chiefs 1971 playoff loss to Miami . . . He had 350 total yards, 85 rushing, 110 receiving and 155 on returns . . . With less than a minute to play in that game's regulation time, Podolak returned a Miami kickoff 78 yards, forced out of bounds by the last available Dolphin tackler on the play . . . His most recent 100-yard rushing performance prior to last season came in 1973 on Monday night television against Chicago, 134 yards on 28 carries . . . The latter figure set a team record at the time, since broken by Woody Green's 30 against the New York Giants in 1974 . . . Podolak was the Chiefs leading rusher from 1970-73 and he led the club in receiving in 1973-75 . . . One of the most proficient rushers and receivers in the game, Podolak's 43 receptions in 1974 ranked third in the AFC . . . His 211 carries in '73 are third on the Chiefs list behind Mike Garrett (236 in 1967) and Abner Haynes (221 in 1962) . . . Podolak scored the Chiefs longest run from scrimmage in 1970 with a 65-yard touchdown run vs. Denver that is also the longest scoring run of his career . . . Podolak had a 54-yard punt return against the Broncos in 1974, the longest by anyone on the club that season, and the best in his career . . . Though he saw no duty on the punt return unit a year ago, Podolak remains the leading punt returner in Kansas City history with 84 for 726 yards . . . Both are club records, as are his eight returns in one game vs. San Diego in '74 . . . His previous record 311 return yards in a season was broken last year by Larry Brunson (387) . . . Podolak's longest pass reception was a 59-yard effort from Len Dawson that helped beat Cincinnati in 1970 . . . Scored three touchdowns in a game on three occasions, vs. Detroit in 1971, vs. Dallas in 1975 and last year against Cleveland . . . Podolak also is the club leader in career carries with 1,025 . . . Podolak was employed mostly on special teams his rookie year after missing half the season due to a pulled hamstring . . . He assumed regular duties in 1970 and accounted for 1,715 yards in combined rushing, receiving and return totals . . . Podolak played quarterback his first two years at Iowa, then switched to tailback in the fourth game of his senior season . . . He finished second in Big Ten rushing that year (1968) and set an Iowa single season rushing record of 937 yards . . . Played in the East-West and Hula Bowl all-star games . . . Podolak holds a degree in finance and insurance . . . Attends to several banking, insurance and real estate interests in the Kansas City area . . . Has done extensive radio work in the past and would like to pursue television sportscasting when his playing days are over . . . An avid skier, Podolak spends portions of the off-season in Aspen, Colo., where he owns a home . . . Also an excellent golfer and plays regularly in celebrity tournaments . . . Married, wife Vicki.

KERRY REARDON

Cornerback/Safety Ht: 5-11 Wt: 180

How Acquired: Draft (No. 6-1971)
College: Iowa
NFL Experience: 7
Birthdate: May 6, 1949
Birthplace: Kansas City, Missouri
Residence: Leawood, Kansas

After announcing his retirement prior to training camp, Reardon returned to the club near the end of the '76 preseason when injuries took their toll on the defensive secondary . . . Upon his return, he reclaimed the starting left cornerback position he had won in 1975 until a pulled hamstring suffered in the Dallas game that year forced him to miss the remainder of the season . . . Reardon concluded 1976 as the club interception leader with five . . . His previous high had been four, in 1974 . . . His longest '76 return was 22 yards vs. Denver at Arrowhead with other pass thefts coming against New Orleans, Miami, Oakland and Denver again . . . He started all 14 games for the first time in his career and managed to avoid the serious injuries that curtailed his progress in '74 and '75 . . . Reardon has played both the safety and corner positions with the Chiefs . . . He spent the bulk of 1974 at corner, starting four games on the left side, one on the right, before a kidney injury at Cincinnati kept him out of the final three games . . . Prior to the hamstring injury in '75, he'd enjoyed his finest season ever, but came back even stronger following his brief hiatus from the game . . . Reardon now has a career total of 14 interceptions . . . He spent most of his first three years on special teams and backed up the now-departed Mike Sensibaugh at free safety in that time . . . Led the team in kickoff returns his rookie year, 1971, with 12 for 308 yards and a 25.7 average . . . Achieved the longest interception return of his career vs. Oakland at Arrowhead in 1975, 28 yards . . . Earned all-Big Ten honorable mention for three years at Iowa and was Academic All-America his junior year . . . Majored in business administration . . . Active in several charitable and fund-raising ventures in the Kansas City area and helped organize the first two Superstars decathlon competitions for area professional athletes . . . Works as a sales representative for Thomas McGee and Sons Insurance Co. in Kansas City . . . Married, wife Peggy.

DAVE ROZUMEK

Linebacker Ht: 6-1½ Wt: 212

How Acquired: Draft (No. 15-1976)
College: New Hampshire
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: April 25, 1954
Birthplace: Lawrence, Massachusetts
Residence: Lawrence, Massachusetts

Rozumek survived training camp until the final cutdown, then was brought back to Kansas City at midseason . . . He appeared in eight games overall, mainly in special team roles . . . Rozumek will contend for a position at right linebacker, where he backed up Jim Lynch last year . . . He was a three-year starter at left linebacker for New Hampshire, captaining the squad his senior year . . . His biggest asset is a highly competitive nature that helps compensate for what he lacks in size . . . Intercepted a total of three passes in college . . . Has played linebacker through high school, college and pro . . . A very consistent performer on the special teams . . . Majored in physical education . . . Single.

JACK RUDNAY

Center Ht: 6-3 Wt: 240

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4-1969)
College: Northwestern
NFL Experience: 8
Birthdate: November 20, 1947
Birthplace: Cleveland, Ohio
Residence: Lee's Summit, Missouri

Rudnay's consistently stellar play over each of the past four seasons has resulted each year in a trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl Game . . . He was the Chiefs lone representative last year when the AFC rallied for a 24-14 victory . . . With seven NFL seasons behind him, he's now the senior member of Kansas City's offensive line; ironically, when he replaced E.J. Holub at center midway through the 1970 campaign, he was the junior partner in terms of experience . . . Missed a start last year, at Buffalo, for only the first time in six seasons, though he did play in the ballgame later on . . . Rudnay suffered a back injury working out with the College All-Star team in 1969 and missed the Chiefs Super Bowl season as a result . . . He won the club's Mack Lee Hill Award as the outstanding rookie a year later . . . The Chiefs have never drafted a center any higher than they did Rudnay, who played both center and defensive tackle as a junior . . . He first started as a sophomore and was an all-Big Ten selection as a senior . . . Serves as honorary chairman of the Special Olympics for retarded children . . . Also served as honorary state chairman, with Roger Wehrli of St. Louis, for the Missouri March of Dimes campaign and gives freely of his time to other charitable causes in the Kansas City area . . . Took an active part in the last three March of Dimes Walkathons in Kansas City . . . Sells commercial real estate for Leo Eisenberg & Co. during off-season . . . Enjoys hunting and fishing and is also an accomplished skier . . . Rudnay's also the proud owner of a completely restored 1955 Chevrolet . . . Married, wife Polly, two children.

JAN STENERUD

Kicker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 187

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3 Future-1966)
College: Montana State
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: November 26, 1943
Birthplace: Fetsund, Norway
Residence: Prairie Village, Kansas

Stenerud was fourth in NFL scoring last year with 90 points and trailed only Baltimore's Toni Linhart (109) in the AFC . . . Connecting on 21 of 38 field goal attempts, Stenerud now owns a .655 career percentage, having made good on 239 of 365 attempts in 10 seasons . . . Kansas City's career leader in nearly every kicking category, Stenerud's 1,031 career points rank second among active AFC players . . . He trails only Jim Turner of Denver, who has 1,228, but who has played two more years than Stenerud . . . In overall NFL figures, Stenerud is in a seventh-place tie with Bruce Gossett . . . He trails George Blanda (2,002), Lou Groza (1,349), Fred Cox (1,316), Jim Bakken (1,264), Turner and Gino Cappelletti (1,130) . . . He's fourth in scoring among active players, trailing Cox, Bakken and Turner . . . Stenerud's Chiefs records include most points in a season (129, 1968), most points after touchdown (314), most consecutive PATs (155, from 1968-73), most field goals (239), most field goals in a season (30 on two occasions), most field goals in a game (5 on three occasions), longest field goal (55 yards) and most consecutive field goals (16 in 1969) . . . Stenerud has three AFC-NFC Pro Bowl games to his credit, the latest being the 1976 contest . . . He holds the Pro Bowl record for the longest field goal, a 48-yarder in the '71 affair . . . He kicked a total of four in that game, three in the second half, to lead an AFC victory and earn himself the most valuable player award . . . His 96 points in 1975 were his most since 1971 . . . He led the AFC in scoring in 1970 with 116 points . . . His 16 consecutive field goals in '69 broke Groza's record of 12, set in 1953 . . . Set a Super Bowl record with 48-yard field goal, one of three in succession, against Minnesota in Super Bowl IV . . . Stenerud took over the Chiefs kicking chores from Mike Mercer in 1967, then finished second in AFL scoring in '68 and '69 . . . His five field goals in one game all came against the Buffalo Bills, twice in '69, once in '71 . . . Has booted four field goals in a game 10 times . . . Connected on his 55-yarder at Denver in 1970, with 54-yard efforts against Houston in '67 and San Francisco in '71 . . . Scored 100 or more points five times in his career . . . Kicked seven points after touchdown vs. Denver in '67 and has six in three other contests . . . Stenerud attended Montana State on a ski jumping scholarship . . . He was discovered as a kicker by football coach Jim Sweeney . . . Majored in business administration . . . Active in several fund-raising and charity ventures in the Kansas City area and has served as special head coach of the Montana Special Olympics for mentally and physically handicapped youngsters . . . Works with Commerce Bank of Kansas City during the off-season . . . Interests include golf and skiing . . . Father of two children.

STEVE TAYLOR

Cornerback Ht: 6-3 Wt: 204

How Acquired: Draft (No. 6a-1976)
College: Kansas
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: December 27, 1953
Birthplace: Fort Worth, Texas
Residence: Fort Worth, Texas

Taylor earned a roster spot as a backup, but did start one early-season game when Tim Gray was not ready to play after a preseason injury . . . Appeared in all 14 contests with most of his work coming on the special teams . . . Taylor intercepted four passes in college, two for 45 yards in returns as a junior . . . Much of his Kansas career was curtailed by injury . . . He missed a portion of both his first two years, but started and stayed relatively injury-free as a junior and senior . . . Blocked two opponent field goal tries, including one against Oklahoma in 1975 that set up a KU touchdown in a 23-3 upset of the eventual national champions . . . Majored in corrections . . . Married, wife Cheryl, one child.

EMMITT THOMAS

Cornerback Ht: 6-2 Wt: 192

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Bishop
NFL Experience: 12
Birthdate: June 3, 1943
Birthplace: Angleton, Texas
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Thomas continues to move closer to the Chiefs all-time interception record as he begins his 12th season in a Kansas City uniform . . . He intercepted two passes last year to run his career total to 55, two behind Johnny Robinson's record 57 . . . Thomas is the leading active interceptor in the AFC . . . He has six more than runner-up Willie Brown of the Oakland Raiders . . . Thomas led the Chiefs in interceptions in 1969, 1971, 1973, 1974 and 1975 . . . He led the NFL in interceptions in '74 with 12, only two short of the mark set by Dick (Night Train) Lane with Los Angeles in 1952 . . . Two of those '74 thefts went for touchdowns . . . His 38-yard score helped seal a Chiefs victory over the New York Jets on opening day, then a 73-yarder in the season closer vs. Minnesota proved to be the longest of his career and the fifth longest in Kansas City history . . . He has returned five interceptions for touchdowns in his career and is only one away from the Chiefs record six by Bobby Bell . . . His 214 yards in returns in '74 is second in Chiefs annals to Bobby Hunt's 228 in 1963 . . . Thomas is the leader, however, in career return yardage, with 938 yards on 55 steals . . . That's almost 200 yards more than his nearest pursuer, Robinson . . . His '76 interceptions came against Washington and Cincinnati . . . Thomas led the AFL in interceptions in 1969 with nine and added three more in post-season competition, one against New York, one against Oakland and one against Minnesota in Super Bowl IV . . . His interception against the Raiders covered 62 yards and set up a field goal . . . He's been the Chiefs regular cornerback the past nine years . . . His 12 interceptions in 1974 set another Chiefs record, breaking the old mark of 10 held jointly by Hunt and Robinson . . . In overall NFL figures, Thomas is the second-best active interceptor . . . He's topped only by Minnesota's Paul Krause, who has 76 . . . Interests include golf and tennis . . . voted Chiefs Man of Year by fans in '76 season . . . During the off-season Thomas works with the National Alliance of Businessmen in Kansas City in a program designed to find jobs for students when they finish their education . . . Married, wife Dianne, two children.

ROD WALTERS

Tackle Ht: 6-3 Wt: 258

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1-1976)
College: Iowa
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: February 27, 1954
Birthplace: Lansing, Michigan
Residence: Iowa City, Iowa

Walters spent most of his rookie season in an understudy capacity, though he appeared in all 14 games and started in three early in the season . . . His initial pro position was guard, but he'll be switched to tackle this summer to try and move him into the starting lineup as quickly as possible . . . The 14th player selected in the first round of the '76 draft, Walters played both guard and tackle at Iowa, where he started three seasons . . . He played the guard slot as a freshman and sophomore, then moved over to tackle for his final two college seasons . . . He was a third-team All-America selection by Associated Press, which also named him to its all-Big Ten squad following his senior year . . . Walters played well on the Chiefs specialty teams in addition to his interior line duties last season . . . Played both football and basketball in high school, when he won a total of six varsity letters . . . He returned to Iowa this past off-season to continue work on his degree . . . Single.

CLYDE WERNER

Linebacker Ht: 6-3 Wt: 230

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1970)
College: Washington
NFL Experience: 7
Birthdate: December 10, 1947
Birthplace: Munising, Michigan
Residence: Sumner, Washington

Werner returned to active duty last season after missing all of 1975 . . . He backed up Billy Andrews at left linebacker after battling Andrews for the position upon his return from a pair of Achilles tendon surgeries . . . Werner originally incurred the Achilles injury following an off-season '75 workout . . . The first operation took place shortly thereafter, then subsequent surgery was necessary shortly before the opening of training camp . . . He's played in special team and reserve roles most of his career, but does have experience at both the left- and right-side linebacker positions . . . Missed all of 1971 due to knee surgery . . . Played two games at right linebacker in '73 when Jim Lynch moved into the middle for Willie Lanier . . . Werner competed in the discus and shot put in addition to football at Washington . . . Played in the 1970 Chicago All-Star Game . . . Majored in business administration. Married, wife Marilyn.

WALTER WHITE

Tight End Ht: 6-3 Wt: 218

How Acquired: Waivers (from Pittsburgh)
College: Maryland
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: July 19, 1951
Birthplace: Charlottesville, Virginia
Residence: College Park, Maryland

In only two seasons, White has become one of the premier tight ends in professional football . . . He finished second to running back MacArthur Lane in total receptions with 47, covering 808 yards, a 17.2 average and seven touchdowns . . . His receiving yardage, average per catch and touchdowns led the club . . . White scored touchdowns in each of seven games and was one of two Chiefs receivers (Larry Brunson being the other) to gain over 100 yards receiving in a game . . . White's high game was a six-catch, 105-yard performance vs. Pittsburgh and he had five catches in each of three other games . . . Caught at least one pass in every contest . . . All this came despite White's splitting the tight end duties with Billy Masters . . . He'll have the position full-time, however, in 1977 . . . White has been particularly effective against Denver . . . He caught touchdown passes in both Broncos games a year ago, made his longest '76 reception, 41 yards, vs. Denver at Arrowhead and made a spectacular debut at Mile High Stadium in the 1975 season opener . . . In that game, White caught a 69-yard touchdown pass from Mike Livingston, his first as a professional, and that stood as the Chiefs longest pass play of the season . . . All three of his '75 touchdowns covered at least 48 yards: his longest TD catch last year was 34 yards against Cincinnati . . . White's excellent downfield speed and much-improved blocking make him an ideal tight end . . . He came to Kansas City the day after the 43-man roster had been reached in '75 . . . A third round draft choice of the Steelers that year, White was waived on the final cutdown to make room for a more experienced tight end . . . Two other clubs had call on his services before the Chiefs, but both passed and Kansas City made its claim, waiving another player to make room on the opening-day squad . . . His teammates voted him the Mack Lee Hill Award following his rookie season as the Chiefs outstanding first-year player . . . He played one year, 1972, at Mesa (Colo.) Junior College before transferring to Maryland . . . Played two seasons with the Terrapins as both a tight end and wide receiver and finished his collegiate career as the third leading receiver in school history with 61 catches for 1,036 yards, a 17.0 average and nine touchdowns . . . He holds the Maryland single game school record of 144 yards receiving vs. Penn State in 1974 . . . Majored in physical education . . . Single.

LAWRENCE WILLIAMS

Wide Receiver Ht: 5-10 Wt: 173

How Acquired: Waivers (from Tampa Bay)
College: Texas Tech
NFL Experience: 2
Birthdate: September 3, 1953
Birthplace: Wichita Falls, Texas
Residence: Wichita Falls, Texas

Williams was drafted on the seventh round by New England in 1975 then moved on to New Orleans before he saw his first action with the Chiefs last year . . . Kansas City claimed him off waivers from the Saints, but Williams was then selected by Tampa Bay in the veteran allocation early in '76 . . . When let go by the Buccaneers early in training camp, he was re-signed by the Chiefs, who quickly put his kick return abilities to use . . . Williams led Kansas City in kickoff returns with 25 for 688 yards, a 27.6 average and a long of 64 against Denver . . . He ranked fifth among NFL kickoff return specialists . . . Caught one pass for nine yards last year . . . At Texas Tech, Williams caught a total of 50 passes for 741 yards and 10 touchdowns during his varsity career . . . He also returned a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown in '73 vs. New Mexico . . . Played quarterback in high school.

JERREL WILSON

Punter Ht: 6-2 Wt: 222

How Acquired: Draft (No. 11-1963)
College: Southern Mississippi
NFL Experience: 15
Birthdate: October 4, 1941
Birthplace: New Orleans, Louisiana
Residence: Pleasant Hill, Missouri

Wilson concluded one of his best seasons ever in 1976 with a third-place finish in overall NFL punting figures and a number six ranking in net average . . . His 42.0 gross on 65 punts for 2,729 yards was bettered only by Marv Bateman of Buffalo (42.8) and John James of Atlanta (42.1) . . . Wilson kicked for a 33.4 net . . . His 65 attempts were his fewest for a full season since 1972 . . . Wilson is within reach of two league records as he approaches his 15th year . . . With 926 career punts, he's only 45 away from Bobby Joe Green's record 970 . . . And, if he were to win another punting title, it would give him five for his career; currently Wilson is tied with the legendary Sammy Baugh with four . . . His punting titles came in 1965 (45.4), 1968 (45.1), 1972 (44.8) and 1973 (45.5) . . . The latter figure is the highest percentage of his career . . . Wilson also becomes the oldest Chief in point of service to the club . . . He, Len Dawson and Ed Budde all spent 14 seasons with the team . . . Wilson's 41.7, 41.4 and 42.0 averages the last three seasons are among the lowest in his career, but must be considered in the context of the sweeping rules changes which affected punters before the '74 season . . . A severely pulled calf muscle sidelined Wilson for the final three games of the '75 season and as a result his 54 punts were the fewest for him since 1967, when he had 41 . . . He set a team record in '74 with 83 punts, breaking the old mark of 80 he'd set the year before . . . Longest kick in his career came in his rookie year, 1963, against San Diego . . . It traveled 72 yards, and remains the team record . . . He's punted 10 times in a game twice, vs. New York Jets in '65 and Denver in '74 . . . Wilson's longest punt in 1976 was 62 yards at San Diego . . . He was named to the all-time American Football League team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame . . . Currently the oldest active punter in the NFL . . . Wilson kicked a 73-yard punt in a 1969 preseason game vs. Atlanta . . . Played center and linebacker in college . . . Earlier in his Chiefs career, Wilson worked as a running back and played that position during several injury emergencies . . . Only eight of his '76 kicks went for touchbacks while 15 were downed inside the 20-yard line . . . Hobbies include hunting, fishing, golf and ranching . . . Works during the off-season for Kansas City Life Insurance Company . . . Has made an instructional film on the art of punting for KC Life . . . Married, wife Bonnie, three children.

JAMES WOLF

Defensive Tackle/End Ht: 6-3 Wt: 250

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Prairie View
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: April 4, 1952
Birthplace: Warren, Texas
Residence: Warren, Texas

A performer in all 14 games last year, Wolf was a starter in half of them, primarily at the tackle position . . . He had one sack for the year . . . Came to the Chiefs as a free agent after being waived by Pittsburgh on the final cutdown in 1975 . . . Pittsburgh drafted him on the sixth round in 1974 and Wolf played a full season that year, appearing in 11 games as a special teams performer and backup defensive end . . . He earned a world championship ring and Super Bowl check that season . . . Played briefly with Toronto of the Canadian Football League before signing with the Chiefs . . . Wolf earned all-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team honors in 1973 and was a second team choice in '72 . . . Tackled opposing quarterbacks 18 times as a senior . . . Majored in industrial education . . . Single.

WILBUR YOUNG

Defensive End Ht: 6-6 Wt: 290

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1971)
College: William Penn
NFL Experience: 7
Birthdate: April 20, 1949
Birthplace: New York, New York
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

The oldest member in point of service along the Chiefs defensive line, Young's quarterback sack total fell off greatly from the 12½ he rang up in 1976 . . . He had but 1½ last year as Kansas City's defensive corps was shuffled and then re-shuffled in attempts to find the right combination . . . Young's '76 sack total was a personal high, breaking his figure of eight in 1973 . . . He now has 29½ sacks over the past five seasons . . . Young played in all 14 games last year, opening in 12 . . . He's never failed to play in at least 13 regular season games since 1973 . . . He's started at right end each of the previous four years . . . He has played at weights ranging from 280-300 pounds throughout his career; he was heavier earlier, but shed excess weight to acquire needed speed in pass rushing . . . One of the nation's outstanding defensive line candidates following his senior year at William Penn . . . Majored in physical education . . . A hobby is tailoring and he makes many of his own clothes . . . Spends portions of the off-season traveling, dividing time between Kansas City and his hometwon of New York City . . . Single.

NFL SCHEDULING

Beginning with the 1978 season, a new master schedule will be in effect and will provide 16 regular season games for each team. Here's how it applies to the Chiefs and the other AFC West teams.

EACH TEAM: Home-and-home games with the four teams in the AFC West (Oakland, Denver, San Diego, Seattle). Total: 8 games. One game with teams 1-4 in a division of the NFC. For 1978, this will be the NFC Central. Sites will depend upon order of finish within the divisions. This step does not apply to the fifth place team in the AFC West.

AFC WEST CHAMPION: Home games vs. NFC Central 2-4. Away games vs. NFC Central 1 and 3. Total: 4 games. One game with each of two other first place teams in the AFC and each of the two other fourth place teams in the AFC. Home games vs. AFC East 1 and AFC Central 4. Away games vs. AFC East 4 and AFC Central 1. Total: 4 games.

SECOND PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST: Home games vs. NFC Central 1 and 3. Away games vs. NFC Central 2 and 4. Total: 4 games. One game with each of the two other second place teams and each of the other third place teams. Home games vs. AFC East 3 and AFC Central 2. Away games vs. AFC East 2 and AFC Central 3. Total: 4 games.

THIRD PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST: Home games vs. NFC Central 2 and 4. Away games vs. NFC Central 1 and 3. Total: 4 games. One game with each of the two other second and third place teams. Home games vs. AFC East 4 and AFC Central 1. Away games vs. AFC East 4 and AFC Central 1. Total: 4 games.

FOURTH PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST: Home games vs. NFC Central 1 and 3. Away games vs. NFC Central 2 and 4. Total: 4 games. One game with each of the other first place and fourth place teams. Home games vs. AFC East 1 and AFC Central 4. Away games vs. AFC East 4 and AFC Central 1. Total: 4 games.

FIFTH PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST: One game with each of teams 1-4 of the four-team division in the AFC. Home games vs. AFC Central 2 and 4. Away games with AFC Central 1 and 3. Total: 4 games. Home game vs. NFC Central 5. Road game vs. NFC East 5. Total: 2 games.

CHIEFS NEWCOMERS

J.J. JENNINGS Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Draft (No. 9-1974)
College: Rutgers
NFL Experience: 1

Birthdate: August 16, 1952
Birthplace: Holyoke, Mass.
Residence: Holyoke, Mass.

A shoulder separation removed Jennings from the Chiefs running back picture during training camp . . . He'll compete at the fullback slot, trying to make the club that drafted him three years ago . . . Jennings, however, opted for the late World Football League after the Chiefs drafted him in 1974 . . . He signed with the Memphis Southmen and was a tri-most valuable player in the WFL's only full season, sharing the honor with Tony Adams and departed Chief Tommy Reamon . . . Jennings finished second among WFL rushers, carrying 322 times for 1,524 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . He caught 46 passes for 431 yards and two scores . . . Jennings was traded to Philadelphia Bell and was with that club when the WFL folded . . . Carried for 2,934 yards on 650 attempts at Rutgers . . . He had 287 carries for 1,262 yards and a 4.4 average as a junior in 1972, then followed with 303 carries for 1,353 yards and a 4.1 figure his last year while leading the NCAA in rushing . . . Carried for 21 touchdowns as a senior . . . Rushed for 193 yards and scored five touchdowns against Princeton in 1973 . . . Majored in physical education and was an NCAA scholar-athlete . . . Works during the off-season as a substitute teacher in the Holyoke school system . . . Married, wife Patti.

IKE McBEE Wide Receiver Ht: 5-11 Wt: 175

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: San Jose State
NFL Experience: 1

Birthdate: July 29, 1953
Birthplace: Mexico, Missouri
Residence: San Jose, California

McBee was with the Chiefs in '76 training camp, but injured a knee in the latter stages of the preseason . . . He was placed on injured reserve and makes a renewed bid this year for a wide receiver slot . . . Kansas City signed him after he'd been let go by San Diego in '75 . . . He was an 11th round draft choice of the Chargers that year, but his Chargers trial came while McBee was rehabilitating a knee that had been seriously damaged his senior year at San Jose State . . . He set Spartan career receiving records with three-season totals of 106 catches for 1,467 yards . . . Earned first-team all-conference honors in 1973 and 1974 . . . Majored in physical education . . . Also ran track at SJS with a 9.7 100 and 22.5 220 . . . Interests include photography . . . Married, wife Beverly.

STEVE BOGRAKOS Safety Ht: 5-11 Wt: 170

How Acquired: Free Agent
College: Central Michigan
NFL Experience: 1

Birthdate: Sept. 5, 1953
Birthplace: Bay City, Michigan
Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Bograkos had a legitimate shot at making the Chiefs roster before a knee injury in a preseason game at San Francisco shelved him for the year . . . The knee required surgery, but a steady rehabilitation program has Bograkos ready for a renewed bid . . . He was playing behind Gary Barbaro when the injury occurred in the third summer-time game . . . Signed with the Chiefs as a free agent out of Central Michigan . . . Bograkos's only other pro experience was a six-week stint with the WFL Memphis Southern before that league died . . . Also played with the Flint Sabres of the semipro Midwest Football League . . . He earned defensive most valuable player honors in the Camellia Bowl game his senior year . . . Single.

CHIEFS 1977 DRAFT

Round 1 GARY GREEN G 5-11 184
Baylor

The 10th player selected in the first round, Green is projected as both a cornerback and kick return specialist with Kansas City . . . The Chiefs personnel department rated Green the third best player in the nation prior to the draft behind Ricky Bell and Tony Dorsett, who were selected one-two in the first round . . . Green had only seven pass interceptions in four varsity seasons, but few balls came his way the latter portion of his career . . . He missed most of his sophomore season with cartilage damage in his knee that required surgery, but he came back in time to play in the Cotton Bowl vs. Penn State . . . Green's best year for interceptions came in 1975 as a junior when he picked off three for 51 yards in returns . . . Saw duty on the punt return team all four years and brought back 37 punts in '76 for 266 yards . . . Green earned first team All-America honors in every major poll save for United Press International . . . In unofficial defensive statistics last season, Green was responsible for 39 unassisted tackles, 20 assists, one fumble recovery, two forced fumbles and two sacks . . . He is the first defensive back drafted in the first round by the Chiefs since Jim Marsalis in 1969 . . . Green undoubtedly enhanced his professional chances with an outstanding performance in the Senior Bowl game when he returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown and had an impressive showing in the Shrine East-West Game . . . His younger brother, Tony, also plays for Baylor and will compete for a strong safety slot this fall . . . Attended Sam Houston High School in San Antonio, where he was born and raised . . . Majored in physical education with a minor in speech/radio-television . . . Born October 22, 1955 in San Antonio, Texas.

Round 4b ANDRE SAMUELS TE 6-4 229
Bethune-Cookman

Playing in a predominantly wishbone offense, Samuels still caught 41 passes for 1,300 yards and seven touchdowns during his college career . . . He began at Florida A&M in 1972, but transferred after one year to Bethune-Cookman . . . He helped beat Bethune-Cookman as a freshman at A&M with two touchdown passes, then switched schools to be near his mother, who's an instructor in the physical education department at Bethune-Cookman . . . Samuels attracted the attention of many NFL scouts at the Whitney Young Classic in Yankee Stadium when he caught a 65-yard touchdown pass vs. Norfolk State . . . Kansas City's offensive coaches see him as a "projection," a player with NFL calibre skills who needs only to refine techniques and fundamentals . . . He is already considered an outstanding blocker . . . An all-state running back at St. Petersburg (Fla.) Northeast High School, he was often used on end-around plays in college to take advantage of his rushing abilities . . . He played his junior season along with Chiefs defensive tackle Willie Lee, drafted on the fifth round by Kansas City a year ago . . . Majored in physical education . . . Born August 1, 1953 in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Round 4c DARIUS HELTON G 6-2 260
North Carolina Central

A tackle during his college days, the Chiefs plan to use Helton at guard to compensate for the move of Rod Walters from guard to tackle . . . A strong blocker with impressive upper body strength, Helton earned all-Mideastern Athletic Conference honors as a senior after receiving second-team mention the year before . . . He was a three-time MEAC lineman of the week selection in 1976 for his performances against Elizabeth City State, Virginia State and North Carolina A&T . . . Helton twice was a Pittsburgh Courier All-America selection and an all-NAIA District 29 choice . . . Covers 40 yards in 4.75 seconds. Burleson did a little of everything at Texas, performing at defensive end, defensive tackle, tight end and center for the Longhorns . . . He also snapped on both punts and placekicks, a facet which interested Kansas City scouts, who feel he deep snaps as well as former Chiefs linebacker Bobby Bell, acknowledged as one of the best of all time . . . The first defensive lineman drafted by Kansas City in '77, Burleson will be tried at the end position plus snapper on the special teams . . . Started three years at Texas but never at the same position twice, a factor which hampered his collegiate career . . . Attended Richland High School in Fort Worth . . . Majored in English . . . Born December 14, 1953 in Fort Worth, Texas.

Round 6b ANDRE HERRERA RB 6-0 198
Southern Illinois

Herrera rushed for 1,588 yards in 1976 and broke or tied 11 Southern Illinois records in the process . . . Foremost among them was his 319-yard, six-touchdown performance in the rain against Northern Illinois . . . In that game, Herrera had 214 rushing yards in the opening quarter, aided by a 53-yard scoring run and an 85-yard run that ended at the Northern Illinois 1-yard line . . . The 319 yards rushing represent the eighth-best single game mark in NCAA history and only one other player has ever scored more than six TDs in one game . . . Herrera's first-quarter output broke the old record of 182 yards in a period set by Eugene (Mercury) Morris in 1968 . . . Herrera's per-quarter breakdown in the Northern Illinois contest was 214 at the end of one, 259 at the half, 312 at the end of three quarters and 319 after he scored his sixth touchdown and was taken out of the game with 10:15 to play . . . He finished second to Pitt's Tony Dorsett in rushing last year and his 144.4-yards per game average was bettered only by Dorsett and Jerome Percell of Western Michigan . . . Herrera had four particularly outstanding games in addition to the Northern Illinois contest, 201 yards rushing vs. Drake, 185 vs. Indiana State, 184 vs. Illinois State and 149 vs. Lamar . . . He easily broke the former SIU one-game rushing record of 248 yards set by Carver Shannon in 1957 . . . Herrera earned Associated Press back of the week honors following his record-setting game and was a member of the United Press International backfield of the week on two occasions . . . Herrera has played very little competitive football . . . He did not play in high school, then competed on a club level as a freshman at Westchester Community College in White Plains, New York . . . Transferred to SIU the following year and was an occasional starter in a wishbone offense . . . New coach Rey Dempsey switched to the I for Herrera's final season . . . He was voted the Salukis most valuable player in '76 after leading the club to a 7-4 record . . . The year previous, SIU had finished 1-9-1 . . . Named to the AP third-team All-America squad and was honorable mention UPI All-America . . . The Chiefs drafted Herrera on a choice obtained the day before the draft from Chicago for Tommy Reamon . . . Majored in recreation . . . Born November 10, 1952 in New York, New York.

CHIEFS TRAVEL PLANS

The Chiefs travel to all opponent cities via airline charter. Chiefs charters are scheduled to arrive at the opponent city at approximately 2:00 p.m. the afternoon prior to kickoff and depart for Kansas City immediately following the game.

Chiefs director of public relations Bob Sprenger will arrive in each opponent city on either Tuesday or Wednesday of game week.

MEDIA FACILITIES

The Press/Radio/Television box at Arrowhead is located on the south side of the stadium on two levels. Entrance to the Radio/Television level (Plaza) and working press level (Club) is through Gate E. The Chiefs provide complete photo darkroom facilities for use on game day and requests for use of these darkrooms should be made in advance to the Chiefs public relations office.

CHIEFS CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
DALLAS at HOUSTON
December 23, 1962

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and '61 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertantly elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards, Spikes, the game's most valuable player, ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
KANSAS CITY at BUFFALO
January 1, 1967

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, subzero temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff. Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I
KANSAS CITY vs GREEN BAY
January 15, 1967

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. But the Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, McGee making a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7, before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned all the way to the Chiefs 5-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
KANSAS CITY at OAKLAND
January 4, 1970

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat, the first of several AFL/AFC title game defeats that have bedeviled the Raiders during the past decade.

Ironically, Kansas City's win in the Oakland Coliseum was its last to date. And the Raiders have fared little better in the confines of Municipal and then Arrowhead Stadium.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own 2-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point, the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas's steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV
KANSAS CITY vs MINNESOTA
January 11, 1970

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains a Super Bowl record. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the 4. Three plays later Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for five yards and a touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, highstepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his third pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

The American Football League's 10-year history had come to an end with the Kansas City Chiefs its most successful team. The 1970s would usher in a new era for the Chiefs, an era that would produce noted changes as the club sought to regain its position as world champion.

CHIEFS FRONT OFFICE

JIM SCHAAF

Jim Schaaf, who's performed a multitude of responsibilities for the Chiefs since 1966, was named the club's general manager last August in a realignment of responsibilities that commenced with Lamar Hunt.

Hunt became the Chiefs chairman of the board and named Jack Steadman to succeed him as club president. Steadman in turn nominated Schaaf to take over his duties as general manager.

The 39-year-old Schaaf joined the organization in February of 1966 as director of public relations, following five years association with the Kansas City Athletics baseball club. Schaaf was elevated to assistant general manager in January, 1968. He was named a vice president in July, 1974.

His duties in the past included supervision of the Chiefs day-to-day operations and the promotion of special events. In addition to these, Schaaf now handles contract negotiations in addition to keeping tabs on all functions within the organization.

Schaaf held several front-office positions with the Athletics, and was their director of publicity and promotions when he joined the Chiefs.

Schaaf was born May 22, 1938, in Erie, Pennsylvania. He attended Cathedral Preparatory School in Erie, then moved to Notre Dame, where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics. He played three years of football for the Fighting Irish, two as a starter, at guard from 1955-57.

Schaaf is active in several charitable causes in the Kansas City area, including the local chapter of the American Cancer Society to which he devotes much free time. He and his wife, Julie, have two children, Jill Marie, 13, and James, 8. The family lives in Overland Park, Kansas.

GROUP SALES

The Chiefs offer a group sales program for legitimate organizations with 25 or more people. Tickets ordinarily priced at $8 are available at the special group rate of $6 per ticket for all Chiefs home games. Groups attending may all sit together in a specified location and each group is recognized both on the Arrowhead scoreboard and in that game's edition of PRO! magazine.

To get your group to a Chiefs game this summer or fall, contact Dave Smith or Bob Lilly in the Chiefs group sales office. The telephone number is (816) 924-9300.

101 AWARDS

Kansas City's annual salute to professional football — the 101 Banquet — was founded to honor outstanding achievements in the sport. The event is sponsored by the Committee of One Hundred One as an activity of the Chiefs Club, official booster organization of the Kansas City Chiefs.

Each year the Chiefs Club invites one hundred one civic-minded, sports-loving Kansas Citians to participate in sponsorship. It is their dedication that makes possible the 101 Trophy, the 101 Banquet and the annual awards ceremony.

The selection committee for the 101 Awards is comprised of a select group of 101 sportswriters and broadcasters from throughout the nation who cover the pro football scene. The balloting is conducted at the conclusion of the NFL regular season and the outstanding players in the AFC and NFC are honored each year in February in Kansas City.

CHIEFS CLUB

Chiefs Official Booster Organization

RAY EVANS

The Chiefs Club is the official booster organization for the Kansas City Chiefs and has long been regarded as one of the most active support groups in the National Footbtall League.

With its official membership approaching 3,000 members, the Chiefs Club is active in ticket drives, special events, charter trips to away games and civic and charity functions throughout the greater Kansas City area.

Under president Ray Evans, the first and only president of the club, the Chiefs Club made some organizational changes a year ago, incorporating both the Chiefs Club board and Red Coat board of directors into one combined board in charge of operating all Chiefs Club activities and events. In addition to the changes a year ago to the 16-member board, some new revisions were added this spring. This includes a constitution revision whereby each member of the board will serve on rotating five-year terms and outgoing members of the board will continue to serve on the Chiefs Club advisory board. With these revisions in the organization, the total Chiefs Club now represents a year round booster organization that not only is involved in Chiefs activities but takes an active part in community and civic projects as well.

The Chiefs Club was formed by a group of civic-minded Kansas Citians in 1963 when Lamar Hunt moved his American Football League franchise from Dallas to Kansas City. The Chiefs Club adopted one major goal:

> "Making Kansas City the strongest franchise in professional football and the best professional sports city in the United States."

The Chiefs Club has grown considerably in size and stature since those early years. In addition to continually being active in Chiefs season ticket drives and booster trips for Chiefs away games, the Chiefs Club has initiated dinner meetings, family functions with Chiefs coaches and players and season-opening luncheons and rallies. The club's biggest project each year is the now nationally famous "101 Banquet" Kansas City's special awards salute to the men of professional football. The eighth annual "101 Banquet" will be staged February 24 at the Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City and the top offensive and defensive players and coaches of the year in the AFC and NFC will be honored along with the Chiefs new Hall of Fame inductee and the Chiefs Mack Lee Hill Award winner for 1977.

Evans, a former All-America football star at the University of Kansas and a member of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, again heads up the Chiefs Club as president for the 1977 season.

BROADCAST TEAM — The Chiefs announce team for 1977 is Tom Hopkins (left) and Bruce Rice (foreground). Hopkins will handle the play-by-play with Rice providing color commentary and the Chiefs locker room show at the conclusion of each game. As in each of the Chiefs 17 years in Kansas City, the broadcasts will be carried by 81/KCMO and the Chiefs six-state regional network. Hopkins is in his first year with the Chiefs, having broadcast the Kansas City Kings basketball games the past three years. Rice, a fixture in Kansas City television and radio, enters his fourth season in the KCMO broadcast booth.

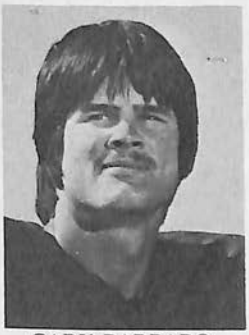
MACK LEE HILL AWARD



GARY BARBARO

Gary Barbaro, a starter at free safety almost from the time he reported to training camp, was voted the winner of the 1976 Mack Lee Hill Award.

A third round draft choice from Nicholls (La.) State, Barbaro took over for the departed Mike Sensibaugh. He intercepted three passes on the season, including two in one game at San Diego. At the end of the year, he was named to the second team all-rookie squad as voted by the Associated Press.

Along with strong safety Tim Gray, Barbaro is one of the links for the future within a Chiefs defense that is gradually being rebuilt. On the subject of rebuilding, he offers these thoughts: "I would compare what we're doing here with what I experienced in college. My freshman year at Nicholls was the first year of football at the school. Within four years, we had a winning program and I think we can accomplish that sooner here."

A native of Kenner, La., Barbaro did not play football until his senior year of high school. He began his collegiate career as a wide receiver, but was moved into the secondary for his final two season. He intercepted nine passes overall from his cornerback position, six as a senior and one for a touchdown. Barbaro twice was named to the all-Gulf South Conference first team.

Barbaro becomes only the third defensive player to earn the Mack Lee Hill Award, joining 1969 recipient Jim Marsalis and the 1972 winner, Larry Marshall, in that category.

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965 and was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Mack Lee Hill, the award is given annually to the Chiefs rookie who, as the inscription on the trophy reads—"best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart and quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs players look for a rookie who has displayed the attitude and spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill.

The Mack Lee Hill Award is presented annually at the 101 Banquet, Kansas City's annual salute to the man of professional football. Barbaro received his award last February 25 from retired Chiefs quarterback Len Dawson.
